NEW CABINET STRESSEMAN VICTORY

HOUSE WILL ACT ON CHILD LABOR ON JANUARY 27

Senator Will Move to Regulate Lobbying Next Month.

Columbus, O., Jan. 15.—Action on the question of ratifying the proposed child labor amendment to the federal constitution is expected to be taken in the house here on January 27, it was announced. At that time, Representative Gordon, Logan County as chairman of federal relations committee probably will report out the proposal without recommendation it was stated.

Although considerable sentiment seems to exist among legislators to defer final action till the next session of the assembly, in the meantime submitting the proposal to a statewide referendum vote, for advisory purposes, legislative leaders today were inclined to believe that the question of ratification will be decided at the present session and that it will be defeated in both senate and house by majorities of not less than 3 to 1.

Senator Garver, Holmes County, Democrat, has announced his intention of seeing to it that a resolution providing for a probe of activities of alleged legislative lobbyists is introduced in the senate within a month. Senator Bender Cuyahoga, Republican, on the floor of the senate Wednesday, declared that Ohio's anti-lobbying law has not been obeyed during the past six years and that only a relatively small number of registered lobbyists complied with the requirement that they file expense accounts with the secretary of state. Another accusation was that lobbyists operated without obtaining licenses required by law.

Now bills pending before the legislature today include:
IN SENATE:
By Bender, Cuyahoga, restricting jurisdiction of justices of the peace, mayors and other municipal officials to the districts in which they are elected; by Hays, Belmont, requiring autos to be parked at the side of country roads; by Hays, reducing the number of peremptory jury challenges to six from sixteen; by Garver, Holmes, strengthening the dog registration laws.

IN HOUSE:
By Knapp, Medina, providing for construction of main market and inter-county highways by state appropriation and removing assessments from abutting property; by Edgington, Clermont, requiring state highway department to keep in repair main market and inter-county highways through villages; by Davidson, Summit, providing for bill of sale for dogs and increasing registration fees; by Hines, Tuscarawas, enabling osteopathic physicians who hold medical certificates issued in other states, to be admitted to limited practice of medicine and surgery; by Evans, Jackson, providing a bounty of 25 cents per head for killing crows. A joint resolution by Senator Vorys, Franklin, provides for appointment of a joint committee of senators and representatives to co-operate with the state office building commission and to report within 30 days.

MARION STAR SUIT AGAINST BANKER HAS BEEN SETTLED

Marion, Ohio, Jan. 15.—The $1,200,000 damage suits brought against Frank A. Vanderlip by Louis H. Brush and Roy D. Moore, owners and publishers of the Marion Star has been settled, according to announcement in the Marion Star today. The amount of damages paid by Mr. Vanderlip was not made public.

The Star today will publish the following news story in connection with the settlement:

"Formal papers withdrawing the suits in Louis H. Brush and Roy D. Moore, of the Marion Star against Frank A. Vanderlip, of Scarborough, N. Y., will be filed in the United States court of the lower district of New York this afternoon or tomorrow morning.

"The settlement of the case grew out of a conference held at Marion several weeks ago, at which a mutual friend of the principals, among others, was present. An understanding was reached at that time, agreeable to all, that the litigation should be ended."

SECRETARY SLEMP EXPECTS TO RETIRE

SCOTLAND YARD SOLVES MURDER WITHOUT HOLMES

Crowborough, Sussex, England, Jan. 15.—A murder mystery almost within the shadow of the home of Sir Arthur Conan-Doyle, author of the famous detective stories, confronted the police today. The victim was believed by the police to be Elsie Cameron, a pretty stenographer. Norman Thorn, her suitor, is under arrest.

The detention of Thorn came after he had been questioned steadily for sixteen hours by Scotland Yard detectives. He was then taken to his farm and the Scotland Yard men began digging at various places. Before long they had uncovered a small suitcase, containing women's clothing and a pair of eyeglasses. The missing girl wore glasses.

Miss Cameron had been missing since December 5. She left her home in London to come here to visit Thorn, to whom she was engaged. He is 24 and she was 26. Thorn was a well to do resident of the district. Since the girl's disappearance there have been many rumors that she had been killed and her body buried on Thorn's farm. Thorn has been one of the most active amateur detectives attempting to solve the mystery. He would point out a spot on his farm and say, "there's where the murder was committed, at least that's what the gossips are saying, and I am going to stay right here till the truth is known."

Neighbors tried to get in touch with Conan Doyle to see if he might use his scientific detective theories, but he was away from home.

BANKER'S FAMILY IN STRANGE HOLDUP.

LAWRENCE E. SANDS & JOHN W. SANDS

One of the most desperate holdups on record occurred in the Squirrel Hill home of Lawrence E. Sands, president of the First National Bank of Pittsburgh, Pa., where Sands, his wife, his son, John W. Sands, the butler and two maids were lined up by two armed men, who posed as gas company employees. The bandits demanded $20,000 on threat of kidnapping Mrs. Sands for ransom. When Sands explained he did not have $20,000 in the house, they forced him to telephone the bank for money, but the bank officials were cautious and sent for the police. In the meantime, young Sands had attempted to escape and was shot, not seriously. The robbers fled before police arrived.

GIRL ADMITS SLAYING MOTHER SO SHE COULD GO OUT MORE WITH MEN

San Francisco, Calif., Jan. 15.—Dorothy Ellingson, 16, arrested after a two day search today confessed killing her mother, Mrs. Annie Ellingson. The girl said she shot her mother because she had remonstrated with her against going out with men.

Mrs. Ellingson was shot through the back as she stooped to tie her shoe in the bedroom of her home in Third Avenue Tuesday.

Dorothy was arrested early today in a rooming house. At first she denied having shot her mother and told a detailed story in which she accused a "hop head" of having fired the shot. Under severe grilling, however, she broke down and made a full confession.

"Yes, I did it," she said. "Mother and I had a quarrel Monday night when I came in. She told me I must quit going out with men and get a job. I told her I wouldn't."

"Tuesday morning when we woke up, we renewed the quarrel. I finally got up and got my brother's revolver and went into her bedroom and shot her."

METHODISTS ATTEND COUNTY CONFERENCE IN XENIA WEDNESDAY

A large number of Methodists from the entire county Wednesday attended the special conference at the First Methodist Church, when Dr. E. O. Crist, District Superintendent, presided.

Several matters of business relating to the pastoral charges of the county were transacted. Dr. F. W. Stanton, Dr. V. F. Brown, both of Xenia, and the Rev. Joseph Bennett, of Jamestown, were appointed a committee on evangelism for the entire county.

G. F. Stewart, Dayton, president of the Lay Association of the Dayton District, delivered an inspiring address on "The Layman's Work in the Church." Mr. Stewart spoke in the place of E. C. Harley, who could not appear on account of illness.

Dr. D. F. Helms, Lima, spoke on the Conference Endowment for retired ministers. Reports were given by the nine pastors of the county, a social hour was enjoyed, and about 100 persons ate supper together.

At the evening service there was a fine audience to greet Dr. C. E. Schenk, of Cincinnati, who spoke in an interesting manner on the "Preparation of the Church to Serve the Present Age." Dr. Stanton, pastor of First Church, announced that a special invitation was extended to all the Methodists of the county to attend the special meetings of Evangelist Birney, to begin a week from next Sunday.

CREW ALL LOST

Queenstown, Ire., Jan. 15.—Lloyds today stated that all the crew of the British steamer Cardiff Hall, numbering twenty-eight were drowned when the vessel went to pieces off Clouakilly, off the Irish coast.

REWARD OFFERED IN SLAYING OF NAUTCH GIRL'S COMPANION

Girl, Beauty Destroyed.
Wa Favorite of The Maharajah

Bombay, Jan. 15.—A reward of 10,000 rupees was offered by the police today for information which would lead to the arrest of the slayers of Abdir Kadir Bawla the wealthy young merchant who was killed while with Mumtaz Begum, a beautiful Nautch girl.

Another suspect was arrested today, making two Parthian tribesmen now in custody. The condition of the Nautch girl, whose face was slashed by the assailants with the purpose of destroying her beauty was still critical.

Authorities revealed that Mumtaz was the beneficiary of an income from the district of Indore, where she had been a consort of the Maharajah. In the annual budget of Indore, $9,000 yearly was set aside for her, it was said.

Mumtaz Begum means "beautiful queen" and the authorities said that she was maintained with all the luxury of a queen. The Maharajah, they said, gave her innumerable costly gifts.

An air of mystery was thrown about the police inquiry this afternoon after one of the Parthian tribesmen was reported to have made a confession. The authorities said that while warings had been sent to Mumtaz to end her romance with Bawla, the merchant now dead, there was no foundation to reports that the Maharajah had directed or even prompted the killing of Bawla.

PETITION ASKS FOR FEDERAL CONTROL OF "PRO" BASEBALL

Ban Johnson Said To Have Endorsed Paper In Circulation

New York, Jan. 15.—Interest in baseball circles today centered in the circulation of a petition, endorsed by Ban Johnson, asking congress to pass a measure placing professional baseball under governmental control.

According to the plan this could be done by the appointment of a federal commission by the president.

The petition bears at the top a letter from Ban Johnson to Joseph Collier, of Cleveland, approving the idea of government regulation of baseball. Collier is said to be behind the movement.

Its seven chief aims, including several novel suggestions, are then set forth. Among other things suggested is the licensing of its clubs, manager, players, coach and umpires, prohibition of one man owning more than one club in the same league, a ban on intra-league sales and trades without the consent of the majority of the clubs and payment of the same salary to each player, depending upon length of service.

Woman Is Nation's Oldest Voter.

Mrs. Louise Thiers, of Milwaukee, is believed to be the oldest voter in the United States. She is 110 years of age, retains all of her faculties and is especially interested in politics. Recently she was thanked by President Coolidge for her support.

DR. HANS LUTHER IS APPOINTED AS CHANCELLOR

New Body Will Back Efforts to Fulfill Obligations

Berlin, Jan. 15.—Dr. Hans Luther, former finance minister, probably will be formally charged today to form a new cabinet ending the period of uncertainty and bitter political strife which has endured since the elections. President Ebert formally appointed Dr. Luther, chancellor, this afternoon.

Dr. Luther, renowned as one of Germany's greatest financial experts as well as a clever negotiator has organized and almost completed the new ministry behind the scenes. It will be a conservative bourgeois cabinet. His selections thus far stand:

Chancellor, Dr. Hans Luther.
Foreign Minister, Dr. Gustave Stresemann.

Finance Minister, Dr. Saenisch.

Minister of the Interior, Herr Schiele.

Minister of Agriculture, Count Kanitz.

Minister of Commerce, Herr Neuhaus.

Minister of Labor, Dr. Heinrich Brauns.

Minister of Justice, Herr Schollen.

Minister of Posts, Herr Stengel.

Minister of the Army, Dr. Otto Gessler.

Stresemann, Kanitz, Brauns and Gessler, held the same posts in the Marx cabinet. Schiele is head of the Nationalist party. Saenisch and Neuhaus held the same positions in the Prussian cabinet to which Luther has assigned them and Stengel was minister of posts in the Cuno cabinet. Schollen, a centrist, comes to the cabinet as an expert.

The new lineup was heralded here as a victory for Foreign Minister Stresemann.

According to the repeated assertions of Dr. Luther, the new cabinet will hold to continuity of foreign policy meaning it will back loyally German attempts to fulfill the Dawes obligations. This intention is reflected in the continuation of Stresemann as foreign minister.

ARGUMENTS ENDED IN MANDAMUS SUIT AGAINST CO. AUDITOR

Arguments before the State Supreme Court in Columbus were concluded Wednesday in the hearing of the mandamus suit for $6,000 against the Greene County Auditor's office for non-payment of money alleged to be due the state for the care, board and medical attention of delinquent children committed to the State Board of Charities by the Juvenile Court. The Supreme Court is expected to hand down a decision in a week or ten days.

Attorneys C. L. Darlington and J. K. Williamson represented the county during the two day hearing and the point was brought out that there is an adequate remedy at law in Common Pleas Court; and that the case could have been heard before a jury rather than bring the mandamus action.

A Common Pleas jury might also compel the county auditor to pay the amount of the bill or could find that not all of the items listed were due the state, it is said. In this way it could first be ascertained whether or not the bill was lawful and the county owed the state money.

The State Attorney General brought the action against the county auditor's office early in the spring of 1924 when County Auditor R. O. Wead refused to pay the bill.

NO BANK ROBBERY BECAUSE ROBBERS ARE UNDER ARREST

Washington, Jan. 15.—There will be no robbery at the Farmers' and Merchants' bank of Shepherdstown, W. Va., today. Washington police saw to that last night when they arrested three youths who, it is charged, were in the midst of completing plans for the holdup and getaway.

The bank was scheduled to receive $30,000 this morning and this sum was the object of the proposed robbery. One of the boys was released but the other two, Jack W. Lillis, 20, and Ernest W. Forester, 17, were held pending investigation.

Police said that when they entered the room occupied by Lillis, the three boys were around a table studying a map of Shepherdstown, showing the location of the bank and the average of escape which they planned to accomplish with a stolen automobile. Masks and ammunition were found in the room.

INFIRMARY INMATES TELL OF SPOILED FOOD SERVED AND STORIES OF CRUELTY

Witnesses For Commissioners Heard Thursday Morning —Defense to Have Inning at Afternoon Session —Sheik Discovered.

Allegations of Greene County Commissioners that D. E. Crow, superintendent of the County Infirmary had been guilty of inefficiency, dishonesty, incompetency and neglect of duty, were argued pro and con at the opening of the hearing before the State Civil Service Commission Thursday morning at the infirmary with no startling testimony produced in the examination of the witnesses.

Four witnesses, inmates and employees at the home, were called by Attorney H. D. Smith, in prosecution, and one in rebuttal before the hearing adjourned at 11:30 o'clock. Witnesses for the defense were not to be called until later in the afternoon session declared Attorney W. L. Miller, counsel for Crow.

Introduction of testimony and evidence will probably be completed late Thursday afternoon, according to attorneys as the number of witnesses called in rebuttal will depend largely on the testimony introduced.

William S. Bundy and Rollin Swisher, of Columbus, compose the Civil Service Commission which is hearing the charges alleged by the commissioners in their effort to oust Crow from his position.

The hearing was resumed at 12:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon after the noon recess which both the commission and Crow and his wife were guests of the County Commissioners for lunch.

William Hughes, the first witness, farmer for the Home, testified that Crow had interfered with his planting of crops and that friends and relatives were weekly guests of Mr. and Mrs. Crow for meals and visits. He said that Charles Vannorsdall, stepson of Crow worked at the Home during vacation and received pay for his labor besides meals and board.

Testimony was also introduced by Hughes that on one occasion he saw garden truck placed in an auto truck but under cross examination admitted that during a short period of absence, the food-stuffs could have been removed and not carried away.

Walter Redmond, butcher, and engineer of the home, told of noticing spoiled meat and its unusual scarcity. He said that he had slept in the boiler room for one week but had later been removed to sleeping quarters in the hallway.

Milton Smith, inmate, testified that meals were poor and much of the eatables soured. Butter was rarely put on the table, separated milk was given the inmates and eggs and poultry were scarce also, he said. At one time, sixteen inmates were in the hospital suffering from dysentery because of the spoiled food, he said.

Two thefts of chickens were noticed by him and twenty were stolen one night although he did not know the offender. Several bushels of garden truck were also missed, he said.

Smith admitted that he was something of a "sheik" at the home and may have been somewhat "sweet" on a woman inmate, which led to an altercation with Crow that resulted in his banishment to the third floor for several weeks. During that time he was fed nothing by Crow, he said, but food was delivered to him by the woman in the case and other employees by way of a back stairway.

Mrs. Alta Reynolds, former employee, told of resigning from her duties after words with Crow over an inmate that had been locked up in the Home jail when he thoughtlessly wandered away several times.

She said that Crow shoved the man into the jail during one of the hottest days last summer and imprisoned him. She said that both Russell and Charles Vandorsdall, stepsons of Crow, were visitors at the home nearly every week while she was there.

The January term of the Grand Jury will convene in Common Pleas Court Friday morning to investigate the case and examine witnesses and will file the charge on which Kennedy will be held.

Sheriff Morris Sharp expressed doubt regarding the removal of Kennedy to the County Jail this week.

DEPOSED MEMBERS CAPTURE CHURCH

Lima, O., Jan. 15.—Mennonites in this section of the country are stirred to fever pitch over the seizure of the church by several members. Suit was filed in common pleas court enjoining the men from using the building and calling upon them to return keys and other property belonging to the church.

According to the suit, two of the men had been excommunicated from the church for conduct unbecoming of their religion, so the two proceeded to seize the building and set up church of their own, excluding all others. This is the first time that such a suit has been filed in local courts.

Gluecraft On The Dressing Table

ANY desired color scheme to harmonize with one's boudoir may be selected in making this lovely dressing table set. The clock case, comb rack, picture frame, glove box and tray are made on foundations of cardboard to which broad bands of broadened ribbon are glued. An edging of gold novelty ribbon is added for both finish and decoration. For the brush, hand-mirror, doll lamp, table lamp, powder bowl and wall mirror, the articles themselves, of an inexpensive make, are first purchased and then decorated. Details of old rose silk and leaves of green velvet are glued to the powder bowl. The small doll lamp has a costume of ribbon and silk glued together and then glued onto the body. A net foundation is first applied with glue to the wire shade of the table lamp, and is then covered with silk and ribbon which are also leaped into place.

Being a member of the German Reichstag, or Parliament, is not a very lucrative position. The delegates are paid $140 a month, which is one-quarter the salary of Cabinet Ministers. But the German parliamentarian enjoys free railroad travel throughout the republic in a first-class compartment.

PAINTING THE SMALL PIECES

When painting furniture such as chairs, small tables, stands and desks (pieces small enough to handle) or any other objects not too large to move, it is a good plan to always turn the furniture upside down and paint the legs first. This allows the upper surface to remain dry until the last and the piece can be handled easier.

"KING OF THE IVORIES"

Now it is that Harry M. Snodgrass, who was in prison, is released from his shackles, that he might go forth to receive the plaudits of the outer world.

Music, which it has said, has charms to soothe the savage breast, has also proved capable of shortening the punishment of Snodgrass, a convicted criminal, and given him a new chance in the world.

For Snodgrass is a piano player, who came to nation wide fame through the operation of the radio, over which he broadcast nightly, from a station at Jefferson City, Mo., where the state prison is located. Nightly he was announced as "King of the Ivories." And it so came to pass that this prisoner, serving behind locked doors as punishment for his crime, won a place in the hearts of millions of radio fans, through his playing.

A poet has written of the sort of fame that comes to one that compels the multitude to beat a path to his door. Harry M. Snodgrass, for whom fame blossomed behind gray prison walls, might endorse the truth of his classical lines. For when Snodgrass leaves the state prison he will have $6,000 in his pockets, an automobile presented by friends and a contract calling for a vaudeville engagement at $600 a week.

Fame and plaudits and recognition of his ability, may, in this case, not only win Snodgrass his freedom, but mellow the bitterness in his heart toward his fellow man, and heal the trait that led him to crime. But whether the release of Snodgrass will work out for good or bad, the whole is the proof of that strange quality in Americans that causes them to create their heroes out of the humble clay and lay their plaudits at the feet of anyone who strikes the popular fancy.

It is a travesty on America's spirit of fair play that Harry Snodgrass, an honest man, might have starved to death with his talent while Harry Snodgrass, a criminal is elaborately acclaimed.

It is also a sad commentary that blind genius at Kansas City, who achieved his talent without the aid of sight and who is a greater master of piano technique, has struck no such popular chord of sympathy, although he also broadcasts his music.

THE COURT HOUSE CLOCK

The face of the Court House clock, is now bright and clean, so that at night the light shines through and the dial can be seen at a great distance.

We can imagine that the clock now says: "Cleanliness is next to Godliness. And I, being already nearer God than mortals on the ground, am pleased to think that my new cleanliness places me in even greater favor. Thus I may now smile in friendly brightness upon all who depend upon me to learn the passing of the hours."

Xenians, who are proud of the Court House, are glad that the face of the clock has been newly washed. County authorities who made the change possible are deserving of thanks.

IN JUSTICE TO THE GOVERNOR OF KANSAS

The final phase of the Davis administration in Kansas is nothing less than tragic. It is not merely humiliating to the governor. It is a blow to the state and to the cause of popular government that developments in the pardon of wealthy convicts should be of such character as to call for a legal investigation.

Yet such an investigation is necessary in justice both to Governor Davis and the state. Evidence has been produced that the governor's son after receiving a large sum of money delivered a pardon from the governor.

The evidence is of such a nature that it cannot be ignored. It requires the most thorough-going sifting. There should be no suspicion of politics in the inquiry. The matter is one in which it is vital that only the truth should be sought without regard to political effect.

The honor of Kansas is involved. There could be nothing more abhorrent than trafficking in the pardoning power. Men and women of both parties will rejoice if the evidence clears the governor of blame.—Kansas City Star.

FATHERS ADVICE

My dad and I, long years ago, were walking down the street. When suddenly a little dog came yelping round our feet. He snarled and snarled so viciously—that angry little pup appeared to me, as though he thought that he could eat us up. I turned and threw some stones at him which always missed the mark. But when I tried to drive him off the louder he would bark.

"Now, son," my father said to me, "Just plod along your way. Don't turn your head for yelping dogs. Remember what I say! You'll notice if I pay no heed to him and hold my peace. That little dog will soon grow tired and all his noise will cease. But every time you stamp your foot and shout to him: 'Begone!' You show that he's annoying you and keep him following on."

"It takes a dog to fight a dog! Post that above your shelf! When canines come and snarl at you, don't be a dog yourself. And later, when you're older grown, and petty men attack, Don't stoop to pick up stones to throw; don't try to answer back. Just walk right on and pay no heed to anything they say. And very soon they'll give it up and turn and run away."

It is a very ancient dodge these petty minds employ. They say the gods first angry make the man they would destroy.

And little dogs and little men who snarl behind your back. Will only snarl the louder if you answer their attack. And they'll have the very thing they started out to do. If, being yellow dogs themselves, they make one out of you!

SOME LIKE 'EM RED

Some may long for the soothing touch of lavender, cream or mauve. But the ties I wear must possess the glare of a red-hot kitchen stove.

The books I read and the life I lead are sensible, sane and mild; I like calm hats and I don't wear spats, But I like my neckties wild!

Give me a wild tie, brother, One with a cosmic urge; A tie that will swear and rip and tear When it sees my old blue serge.

Oh, some will say that a gent's cravat Should only be seen, not heard; But I want a tie that will make men cry And render their vision blurred.

I yearn, I long for a tie so strong It will take two men to tie it. If such there be, just show it to me, Whatever the price, I'll buy it.

Give me a wild tie, brother, A tie with a lot of sins; A tie that will blaze in a hectic haze Down where the vest begins. —E. E. K. in Philadelphia Public Ledger.

PORCH FURNITURE

Porch furniture should express gaiety of the spring and summer. The bright clean colors of enameloid lend themselves to this use admirably and at the same time present a hard, firm surface that resists wear and is easy to wash and clean.

TYPE OF WOOD FOR FOUNDATION Birch, because of its fineness and evenness of grain, is best for enamel work. It is very hard and does not dent or bruise readily. Whitewood, poplar, white pine and well seasoned gumwood comes next. Yellow pine and cypress are not desirable because of their relatively high pitch content.

1905-Twenty Years Ago-1925

The new light, heat, and power plant has been put in operation at Wilberforce University and the buildings which have heretofore been heated by individual plants are now being furnished heat by a central station.

Dr. W. A. Galloway will leave within the next few days for a delightful sojourn in the South. Fire broke out in a house on East Second Street Sunday morning and completely destroyed the frame building.

A match game will take place at the Schmidt and Zetter bowling alleys Tuesday evening, between the Dayton Heralds and the Xenia Indians.

ers: We have all painted the wooden dress hangers, or covered them with padding and silk ribbon. But these new and original ones, were covered with Germantown worsted crocheted (with the simple double crochet stitch into a strip which just covered both sides of the wood and was sewed into places with a worsted thread. The hook part was covered by a worsted doll's head made from a small ball of the yarn with eyes, nose and mouth sewed upon it. A pretty bow covered the spot where this doll's head joined the wood part of the hanger.

As usual after the Christmas Holidays, I have made the rounds of my friends' houses to see the new fancy-work articles which were received as Christmas gifts. Here are a few of the most original:

Glass Candlesticks with a French Touch: Ordinary glass candlesticks were used for this gift, with square column and square base. Gold net had been sewed around the column to the top, and also over the flat base, decorated here and there with small silk-ribbon flowers in many colors. On the very bottom of the candlestick (underneath) a piece of blue ribbon had been pasted (this ribbon was cut the exact size of the flat, square base) and its blue showed through the glass and also through the gold net in its right position. In this way, the entire candlestick was given a dainty blue tint. To complete the gift, a blue wax candle was stuck in the top.

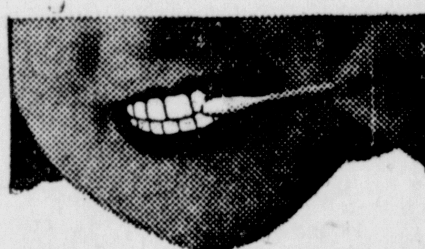

The New Handkerchief Cases: These were circular in shape, measuring five inches in diameter, so that they would amply hold a handkerchief or two, which were folded into a small square in the ordinary way. The case was made of two parts of equal size—an upper circle and a lower one, each padded with flannel, scented, covered with pale pink silk and finished around the edge with a narrow border of "Val" lace. The top pink circle was decorated with a wider frill of lace sewed on in a circle at its center, and in the very middle was a flat bunch of tiny, silk-ribbon roses. The two halves of the case were caught together at the edge in only one place—thus making it easy for one to open it in a hurry and take out a handkerchief. The trouble with the old-fashioned handkerchief cases was that one had to fuss untiringly with ribbons or unfolding ends to get at their contents! This one resembles two pancakes which open like an oyster.

MAKING AND BREAKING HABITS

We are all veritable bundles of habits.

All our power for good and happiness would be lost if we were not such. The great thing comes to pass by doing the simple good thing over and over again.

I get great thrills in reading biographies telling of the ways and means whereby men and women rose from obscurity to fame and large usefulness.

And this is what I learn: hardship and hardship and hardship. Always hardship before applause, wealth and luxuries.

Joseph Pulitzer, late publisher of The New York World, came to America as a young boy from Hungary. Even then he abhorred red tape and go jumped off the boat on which he came across the ocean and swam to the shore of his dreams.

He stopped at a hotel on Park Row, New York, but was asked to leave because the boss didn't like the looks of his ragged clothes and worn shoes. Twenty years later Pulitzer bought that hotel, tore it down and put up the great World Building that now stands upon the site.

Joseph Pulitzer learned the value back of reading very early in life. Reading was his greatest habit. And after he became blind he hired a dozen secretaries to read to him and to talk of what they had read.

A path is just a habit—the habit of feet working their way across the earth until the grass all dies. To obliterate that path you have to dig it up and plant new seed and not walk upon it.

To form a habit you must do one thing over and over again. To break a habit you must put something else in the place of the thing you have made your habit out of.

You can't have too many good habits and you can't afford to have too many bad habits.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. These little olive-colored tablets are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel.

The pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel. Let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place.

Headaches, "dullness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "lousy" and "heavy." They "clear" clouded brain and "perk up" the spirits. 15c and 30c.

Keep your lovely silver or cut glass as lustrous and untarnished as New.

YESTERDAY'S JUNIOR PUZZLE ANSWER

Princess Mary to Visit Canada
London, Jan. 15.—So successful was the recent visit of the Prince of Wales to Canada that Princess Mary and her husband, Viscount Lascelles, have virtually decided to visit the Dominion next year. It is reported authoritatively.

Surprising indeed is the ignorance that prevails regarding the nature and causes of colds and coughs. In the first place, it is impossible to "catch cold." It is not cold air, but impure air, that is the main cause of these troubles. When one is in close or vitiated atmosphere and the membranous lining of head or throat becomes on this account irritated or inflamed, it should be readily understood that the mucous accumulations must be expelled before a cure can be effected. When a person has really caught his "cold" indoors the relief afforded by getting out-of-doors into a healthier atmosphere is to cough up or sneeze out the products of his affection. These are only symptoms of the real trouble which he experiences but as they are what he feels and sees, he ascribes his trouble to the colder, purer air which is giving him the relief that Nature provides for his benefit. Instead of the cough or cold being the sufferer's enemy, it is the best friend he could have at such a time. If he did not have such means of relief as coughs and colds the mortality from such maladies would be frightful to contemplate.

Bronchitis, asthma, and catarrh are really the chronic conditions resulting from frequent acute attacks and the inability of the system entirely to rid itself of the more or less putrid secretions of the membranous lining of the head or throat. This inability is simply due to a lowered general vitality. It must be plain that the true cure lies in increasing vitality, in order that the system itself may have power to throw off the poisons infecting the delicate membranes. Artificial stimulants and spraying and smoke treatments cannot accomplish this. Of course, treatment that will temporarily cleanse or dry up the products of the affection afford relief for the time being, but these accumulations must certainly reappear, for the treatment does not remove the cause of the trouble—deficient vitality.

Cold water and cold air are among the best treatments for colds and coughs. Diet, too, has considerable to do with susceptibility to colds and their cure. However, strong vitality is the surest preventive of pneumonia and consumption.

Central High School basketball team will be called upon to take on one of the hardest games of the season Friday night when it faces McClain High at Greenfield. The McClain tossers have not dropped a game to date, having five wins in their record book. They beat Columbus East High by a 22 to 12 score while Stivers of Dayton beat the Columbus five by two points. According to the dope Greenfield has quite a good team. Mossfield, who plays left forward, seems to be their best bet and the locals had better keep an eagle eye upon him Friday night.

Central's win over Bradford last week gave them confidence but in taking on Greenfield they will be facing a much stronger team than Bradford. The loss of Allen Zell, veteran center, was a blow to the team and its followers. Zell has had three years experience at tipping the ball off and while fairly good on offense he was a whale on defense. His absence will no doubt be missed all season. Coach Ballantyne has shifted Buell from guard to center while Huston has taken Buell's place at the guard position. Just how this will work out is not known but it seemed to be O. K. last week. On Saturday night the team will journey to Urbana and meet the high school team of that place. Urbana has not been going so good this season so the locals should not encounter much trouble from them.

Wilberforce University basketball team, which won the Midwest championship among colored colleges last season will make another bid for the same bunting this season. To date it has played five games losing one and this to the strong Leoni five of Pittsburg, Pa., by a 37 to 21 score. They have wins over Cleveland Aces, Dayton Marathons and Medway Collegians. The Medway bunch has been together for four seasons or so and during that time they have not tasted defeat over half dozen times. Wilberforce beat them a week ago by a 33 to 33 score. The Collegian players claimed Wilberforce was the best team they have ever played.

Dean Mohr, a graduate of Illinois University is mentor of the colored lads. He has been at Wilberforce for three seasons. Last season they dropped but one game while they won sixteen. The Chicago Defenders was the only team able to turn them back and it took them an overtime period to do so, the score being 12 to 10. Mohr developed Gaston Lewis, former Caesar Creek High player, into a wonderful forward. Lewis made the mythical All-American Colored College five last season. Ward, Wilberforce guard, also landed a place. Mohr has the same two lads back this year while he also has Huff, last season's guard and Joe Anderson, local basketball flash. With this array of talent and under Mohr's tutelage they will no doubt have another successful season.

TO GIVE A GRAINED EFFECT

A splendid grained effect can easily and readily be produced by applying a coat of graining preparation directly over the ground color, then graining with a regular graining roller or steel comb.

CULLED SEED PAYS EXPERTS DECLARE

Cull your seed just as you cull your chickens and dairy cows, is the word crops extension specialists at the Ohio State University pass along to Ohio farmers.

It is good policy to have crops grown from carefully selected seed, the crops men say, because it pays consistent dividends. It is for that reason that the Ohio Agricultural Experiment Station at Wooster and the research men at the state university have spent years in developing grain varieties that will resist disease, yield well, and at the same time adapt themselves to Ohio conditions.

Wheat the crops specialists recommend, should only be grown in Ohio from seed clean and free from weed seed and from one of the dozen varieties proved to be best in this state. Six or eight varieties of oats, some adapted to the southern half of the state better than others, for example, are listed as virtually free from smut, one of the greatest enemies of the crop.

In their annual report just filed the crops specialists announce this as their goal: get every farmer in Ohio to appreciate the value of good seed.

Your Income Tax

Reduction of the income tax was effected by the revenue act of 1924. A rate reduction, however, was not the only benefit afforded by this legislation. Increase in the exemption for married persons and heads of families, a 25 per cent reduction on "earned income", and other changes are of immediate interest to every taxpayer. As an aid, therefore, in the preparation of income tax returns for the year 1924 the Bureau of Internal Revenue has prepared a series of articles on the new act and the regulations governing its administration, of which this is the first. The salaried man, wage earner, professional and business man—in fact every class of taxpayer—will be fully informed of their requirements and privileges. Taxpayers are advised to preserve these articles as a guide in the making of their returns.

Returns are required of every single person whose net income for 1924 was $1,000 or more or whose gross income was $5,000 or more and of every married person living with husband or wife whose net income was $2,500 or more or whose gross income was $5,000 or more. Divorced or married persons separated by mutual consent are classed as single persons. Married persons living together are required to file a return if their aggregate net income was $2,500 or more or the aggregate gross income was $5,000 or more.

Husband and wife living together may include the income of each in a single joint return, or each may file separate returns showing the income of each. Where a joint return is filed, the tax is computed on the aggregate income and all deductions and credits to which either is entitled is taken from such aggregate income.

If a wife does not file a separate return or joint with her husband in a return, the husband is required to include in his return all income received by the wife in payment of wages, salary, or from the sale of products of her labor. In the returns of married persons must be included also the income of dependent minor children.

It should be remembered that a husband and wife living together need make no return unless their aggregate net income for 1924 was $2,500 or more or the aggregate gross income was $5,000 or more. Last year returns were required of such married persons whose aggregate net income was $2,000 or more.

BELIEVE LEONARD HAS DESERTED THE RING FOR THE STAGE

New York, Jan. 15—Benny Leonard, the young man who gets his training nowadays by jumping at conclusions will leave town tomorrow for Chicago where on Monday he will open a vaudeville engagement of many weeks.

The well known actor will receive $3,000 a week for his trouble if any, and intimate friends here predict that the prize ring will see him no more.

Those on the inside are so certain of Leonard's retirement that they predict official verification will be forthcoming from the gentleman himself before the end of the winter season. They declare that Benny is about ready to yield to the importunities of his mother, who has come to the conclusion that the footlights lend greater dignity than the fist flourish. Her argument that a boxfighter leads a hand to mouth existence is borne out by the fact that Benny has had a few teeth jammed back into his windpipe.

That a statement of his intentions will be issued this week as reported, has been characterized by Leonard as "bunk." He, it seems, has nothing to say at this time and is proceeding to say it, eloquently. But his friends point to the fact that he weighs close to 145 pounds stripped and therefore he could not make the lightweight limit.

FIVE HUNDRED SEE PHONE OPERATION AT EXCHANGE HERE

Five hundred people visited the Xenia exchange of The Ohio Bell Telephone Company during the first three days of "Visitors' Week," according to H. W. Cleaver, commercial manager here.

Of these, 250 visited the exchange Wednesday, when better weather prevailed, while the others were present the first two days, when the weather conditions kept down the number. With good weather during the rest of the week, it is expected crowds will exceed in number those of the first half of the week.

An interesting feature of the demonstration, shows how a rapid shaking of the receiver hook, has no effect in aiding service. A demonstration telephone in the exchange is used to prove that rapid shaking of the hook fails to light the signal bulb on the exchange board while a slow movement of the hook, flashes the light and signals the operator.

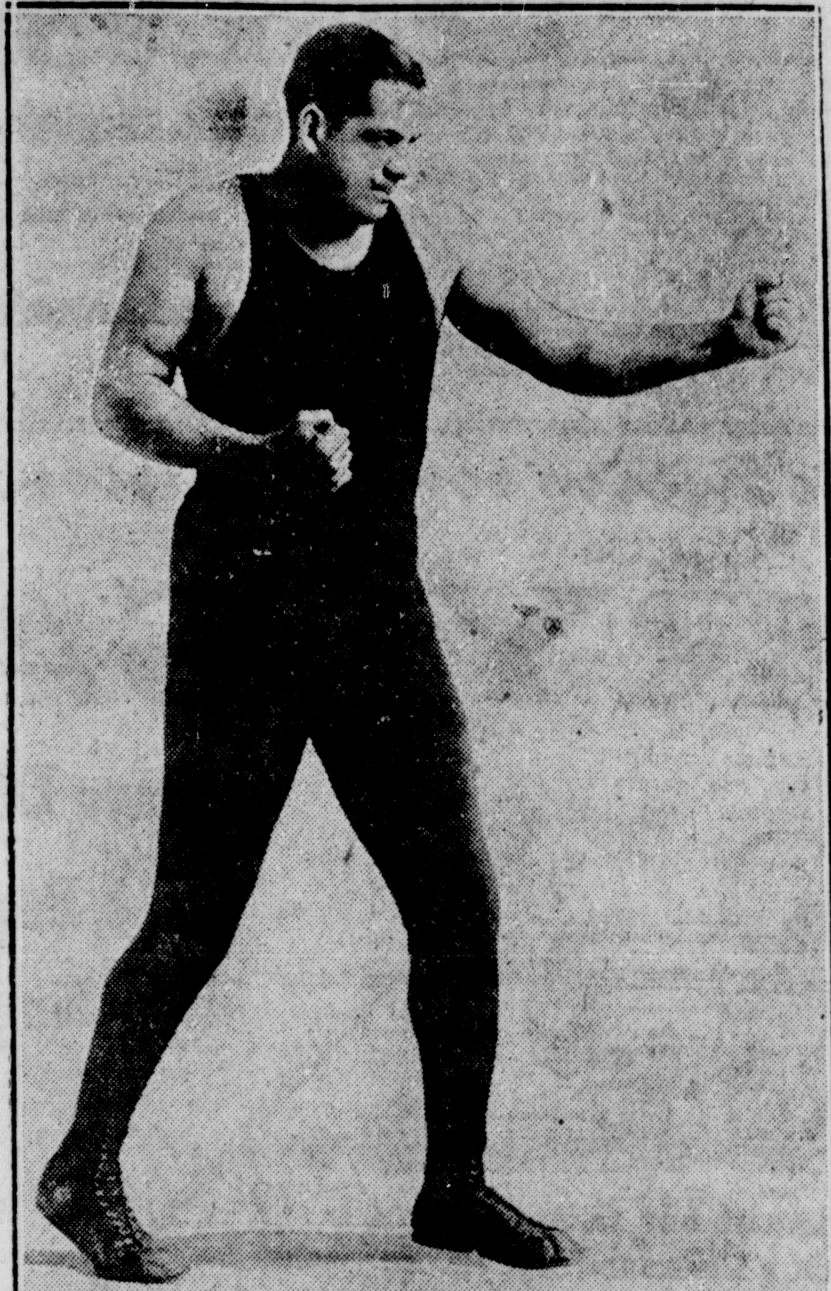

THE TOO HIGH OR TOO LOW CEILING

If the ceilings of your rooms are too high, they can be made to appear lower by decorating the walls up to about two or three feet of the ceiling, or by using flat tone paint on the walls either the same color as the ceiling or a color combination. Should the ceilings be too low, height can be produced by finishing them in a flat tone paint considerably lighter than the walls.

FINISH THE INSIDE OF DRAWERS

A coat of a velvet finish varnish applied to the inside of drawers insures their being dust proof and sanitary besides being attractive. Another method now in vogue is applying, before varnishing, a coat of flat tone paint to the drawers of the table or desk which is in harmony with the color suggestion carried out in the room.

HURLS "STRANGLER" LEWIS FROM RING.

WAYNE H. ("BIG") MUNN.

An erstwhile University of Nebraska football player, who tried boxing unsuccessfully, and who is a novice at wrestling, is now world's heavyweight wrestling champion. He is Wayne H. ("Big") Munn, who, by wondrous strength, broke "Strangler" Lewis's fearful headlocks and crushed him into submission in Kansas City. Munn won the first third falls and lost the second when he picked up the giant Lewis and threw him out of the ring. The referee disqualified him, but Lewis, when he re-entered the ring, was apparently badly hurt and lost the third fall in less than a minute. Munn stands six feet seven inches in height and weighs 258 pounds. Lewis had to go to a hospital, unable to wrestle for a year.

TWO HUNDRED FARM BUREAU MEMBERS HEAR REPORTS AT ANNUAL MEETING THURSDAY

More than two hundred people attended the morning session of the annual meeting of the Greene County Farm Bureau, in the assembly room of the Court House, Thursday, to hear the reports of the officers of the organization.

The program opened with the invocation by the Rev. R. G. Kyle, followed by the singing of "America" by the audience.

W. B. Bryson, president of the Greene County Farm Bureau, delivered his annual address to the body. He praised the strides of the bureau within the last year and gave a resume of past achievement, made successful through the co-operation of the farmers of the county.

Herman Eavey, treasurer of the county organization gave his report of the finances of the year, followed by the report of W. W. Anderson, secretary.

The accomplishments of the past year, through the extension program and the co-operative organizations of the county were reviewed by Ford S. Prince, county agent, in his report.

In Mr. Prince's opinion, the outstanding accomplishment of the year was the work among the boys' and girls' clubs.

Three hundred and thirteen young people were enrolled in the clubs in 1924 he said, and there were thirty-three leaders. Twenty-five clubs and 84 per cent of the members who started the year, finished and 264 exhibited at the Greene County Fair.

The membership and work was an increase of about 100 per cent over last year, Mr. Prince said.

He spoke of the successes of the demonstration teams of the county at the Ohio State Fair last fall.

One million dollars worth of Greene County produce was marked by the co-operative organizations during the past year, the report said. The marketing plan meant a saving of $80,000 to Greene County farmers.

Other projects listed by Mr. Prince in his report included the testing of 50,000 ears of seed corn, an increase of an acreage of 60 per cent in Trumbull wheat, introduced by the Farm Bureau; the use of 850 tons of limestone for soil improvement and certified seed work which brought increased yields.

The demonstration work of 1924 included orchard work, worm culture, sheep parasites, poultry demonstration, poultry culling, and poultry housing. The keeping of farm accounts was introduced in the county school by the organization.

Sixty-three women were enrolled in the clothing club work. The testing of cattle for tuberculosis on the area plan, which was started in the county last year, is being continued. Mr. Prince announced.

M. D. Lincoln, executive secretary of the Ohio Farm Bureau Federation, addressed the meeting, Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. He talked on "The Outlook for the Farm Bureau."

The afternoon program was also featured by an address on "Home Agent Work" by Miss Adele Koch, and "Rural Welfare Needs" by Miss Ella Haas.

Music by a male quartette augmented both programs.

ESKIMAU PUPILS LEARN RAPIDLY BY RADIO PROGRAMS

New York, N. Y., January 10—The Department of the Interior has established a school for the natives at Pilot Station, which is located on the Yukon River, about one hundred and fifty miles from the Bering Sea, in an effort to provide the same advantages now enjoyed by the school children in the States.

Located as they are, almost within the Arctic circle, they suffer the hardships of extreme northern winters. Communication facilities are very poor, as can be imagined from the fact that it requires newspapers and letters from three to six months to get there.

Miss Inez Moore, who teaches school during the day, realizes the isolation of the school and had a long distance radio receiver installed for the purpose of keeping in touch with the outside world.

Miss Moore finds the radio very valuable in teaching the elementary principles of American History and Politics. American political speakers over the radio, influence her pupils to such a degree that she has no difficulty in holding their interest and she feels that they now have a better realization of the principals and ideals of American Government.

Each night, the Eskimaux crowd the little school room to enjoy the broadcast programs. Besides political news, they have the best hotel orchestras, lectures and the latest news from the outside world. In spite of the distance and location, they listened to the play "Turn to the Right" broadcast from K G O, Oakland, California.

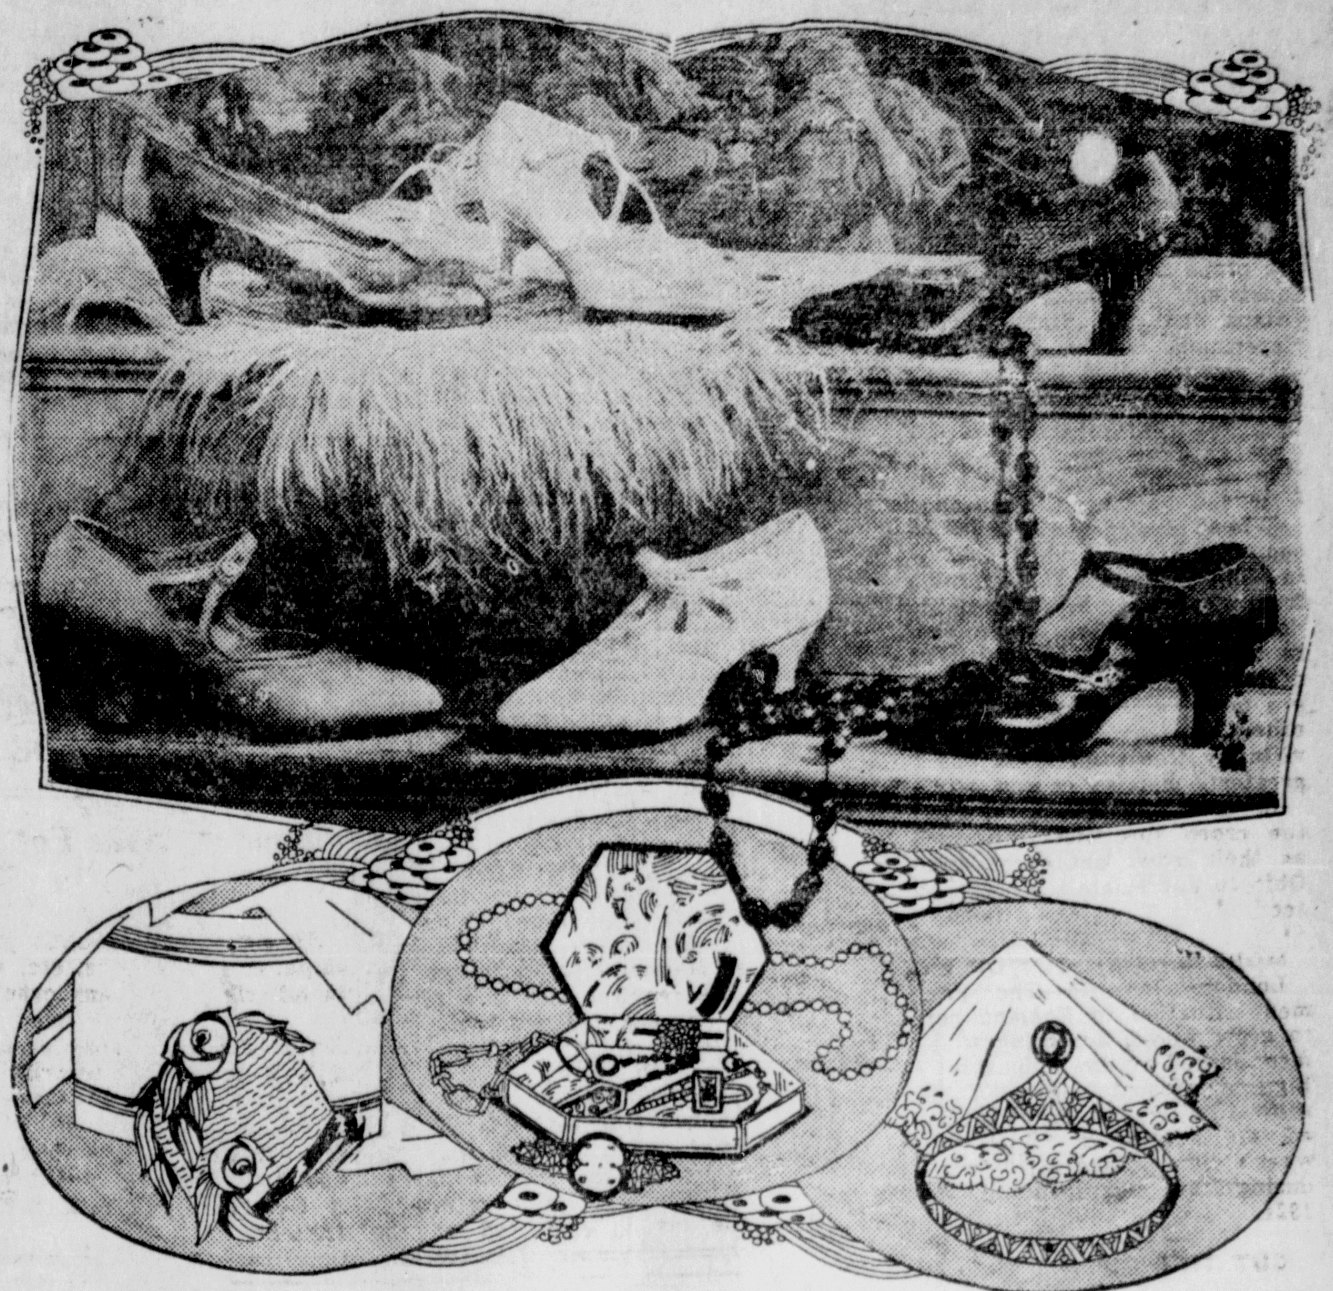

It is hard to realize how far this little school in the frozen north is from civilization, but some idea can be gleaned from the fact that it took six months for a letter from the Honorable F. A. Jeters, an uncle of Miss Moore's, to arrive, announcing his election to office of Secretary of State of Idaho.

Pilot Station, Alaska, where the Department of the Interior has established the Alaska native school is about 62 degrees North Latitude, 162 degrees, 57 minutes West Longitude.

PAINT RADIATORS

Don't make the mistake of painting your furnace registers, radiators or heating pipes in sharp contrast to the background of your room for it breaks the general color scheme and tends to make a room look ugly. It is much better to do these fixtures in the same shade as the walls and they are not easily perceived.

The Mode of the Season

Six attractive models in kid, representing the newest and smartest in afternoon shoes, both formal and informal. The black kid pump in the upper left hand corner is appropriate for morning and informal afternoon wear with simple frocks. The shoe in the upper center is of silver kid, and suitable for the more elaborate evening gowns. The brown kid shoe to the right shows to advantage the smartness of the new lizard trim when combined with the softness of kid. Lower left, an Oriental gray kid shoe, simple of line and cut, indicating the change from intricate openwork. The white kid shoe, with the flower-petal cut-out, is appropriate for the light, dainty gowns of mid-summer, while the shoe at the right illustrates, once more, the effectiveness and smartness of black kid.

Display advertising is a 5,000 year old business.

The first advertising which is recorded is in the form of a sheet of Egyptian papyrus parchment now on view at the British museum. This advertises for the return of a lost slave, offering a reward. The ad is dated 3,000 B. C.

Even the great billboards which cause so much comment at present are nothing new in the advertising line. Many of the houses in Pompeii had their sides plastered with painted ads.

The Phoenicians were even more enterprising. They wrote ads on great billboards constructed for the purpose along the sea coasts and when night time came they built huge fires to illuminate these boards.

Trademarks and trade signs were quite common on pottery thousands of years ago. One of the most interesting trademarks, which survives to this day is the coat of arms of the Medicis. This coat of arms consists of the now familiar three gold balls which pawn-brokers have universally adopted.

Neglected Cough Dangerous—How to Stop It Quickly

When the delicate tissues of your throat are raw and sore from coughing, and your strength is exhausted with the constant hacking, you may fall an easy prey to more serious trouble. So stop the cough the quickest way you can, before it creeps too deep.

By a very simple treatment you can stop the spells practically at once, and relieve the heaviest cough often in 24 hours. The treatment is based on a remarkable prescription known as Dr. King's New Discovery for Coughs. You simply take a teaspoonful and hold it in your throat for 15 or 20 seconds before swallowing, without following with water. It has a double action. It not only soothes and heals soreness and irritation, but it quickly loosens and moves the phlegm and congestion which are the direct cause of the coughing. With the cause treated in this way, the whole cough condition goes in a very short time.

The prescription contains no opiates or harmful drugs. It simply helps Nature. It is for coughs, chest colds, hoarseness, bronchitis and spasmodic croup. Very economical, as the dose is only one teaspoonful. For sale at all good druggists. Ask for

QUIT GETTING UP NIGHTS

A Healthy Bladder Acts During the Day

C. N. Shuman, Republic, Ohio, says: "Before taking Lithiated Buchu (Keller Formula) had to get up six or seven times each night. Now I do not get up at all. You may use my name if it would benefit anyone with bladder trouble." Be careful not to take drugs that check the action of the bladder. You may have to continue its use. Lithiated Buchu (Keller Formula) increases the action during the day. It cleanses the bladder as Epsom Salts do the bowels driving out foreign matter, neutralizing excess acids, thereby relieving the irritation which causes "Getting Up Nights". These tablets cost 25c each at all drug stores or Keller Laboratory, Mechanicsburg, Ohio. Locally at Sayre and Hemphill. Adv.

RESULTS THAT LAST

Proven by Xenia People.

Thousands of kidney sufferers have tried remedy after remedy with only temporary benefit. That's mighty discouraging! But one kidney remedy has earned a reputation for lasting results and there's plenty of proof right here in Xenia.

Read the experience of one who used Doan's Pills years ago and now makes her endorsement even stronger.

Mrs. David Pohl, 751 W. Second St., Xenia, says: "I suffered with lame back quite frequently, but the most annoying symptom was the irregularity of my kidneys. I felt languid and it seemed I couldn't get any rest. Doan's Pills from Donges' Drug Store cured me entirely."

OVER FOUR YEARS LATER, Mrs. Pohl said: "I have had no further occasion to use Doan's since they cured me."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Pills—the same that Mrs. Pohl had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

VALUE OF POUND IS NOW INCREASING

Value of the British pound is getting back to normalcy, according to advice received by Postmaster C. S. Frazer Tuesday who passed on an order to the money order department to rate the pound sterling at $4.90 after Tuesday.

In pre-war days the pound was worth but $4.86 when the financial status of the mother country had fallen to such a low level that not much more than $3.00 was necessary to purchase a Bank of England note.

Recent financial market quotations rated the pound sterling at slightly more than $4.77. Now, however, if it is desired to buy a pound for transmission by a postal money order from Xenia, $4.90 must be paid.

POLICE COURT

FINED FOR THEFT

Elmer Johnson, colored, Orchard Street, arrested on a warrant sworn out by Frank Cline on a charge of petit larceny, was convicted of the charge at his trial Monday afternoon in Police Court and fined $25 and costs and sentenced to spend thirty days in the County Jail by Police Judge E. D. Smith. Cline declared Johnson had stolen a tire from his automobile.

MAKES SETTLEMENT

Mrs. Jennie Hickman, colored, East Third Street, has agreed to pay $200 and costs on an old fine of $500 and costs imposed last May by Police Judge E. D. Smith on a charge of possessing liquor.

Mrs. Hickman's case was carried into Common Pleas Court by her attorney Frank L. Johnson, on the grounds that a police judge appointed by city officials could not legally impose a fine, but the appeal was never heard.

AUTO STOLEN

Lester Harner reported to police Tuesday that his Buick touring car, which he had parked on East Church Street near the Central High School building Monday night, had been stolen. The machine bore a 1925 license.

TO CENTER COLOR

If there are several pieces of furniture and accessories in a room which are of various colors, a touch of harmony is easily obtained by having a stencil design on the walls which brings in its make-up the different colors. The stencil is made more attractive by applying a coat of a velvet finish varnish after the paint has thoroughly dried.

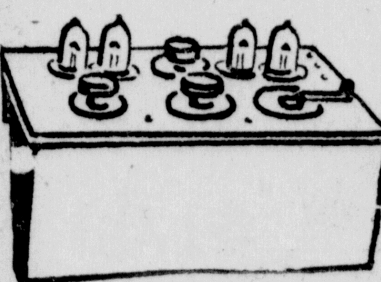

PILES

The application of BRAZILIAN BALM covered with hot moist compress is a direct relief for inflamed piles. A peculiarly effective cathartic in presence of inflamed piles is to mix Brazilian Balm one part with glycerine two parts and take half a tablespoonful four times daily. adv

MAKING STENCIL PATTERNS

When making a stencil design it is best to use the regular stencil paper which can be bought at any paint or art shop. However, there are two good substitutes if time can't be taken to secure stencil paper. You may use a heavy wrapping paper and treat it with either linseed oil or just the ordinary sewing machine oil, or you may take cardboard and rub it with wax. These substitutes are so treated to prevent the paint from smearing when stencil pattern is being put on.

THE FIREMAN

without a hose

FLAMES in a great tenement imprisoned scores of persons in the apartments above. The Fire-Chief ordered a hose played on the blaze. His men jumped to obey. Their wagon was empty. The hose was missing.

A missing word is a missing tool. The man who can't express his thoughts can't convey his ideas. If you don't know words, and how to use them, you are as bad off in business or society as a fireman at a fire without a hose. What chance would you stand against the fires of competition if you could neither write nor speak?

You must keep apace with the language to keep up with the world. Education today is progressive—not confined to yesterday's language and activities. War and new discoveries have brought into general and proper use so many new words that all dictionaries published before this one are wholly out of date. The offers to its readers this new dictionary.

Twenty-two dictionaries in one. Defines words used with special meanings in such activities as war, golf, yachting, music, baseball, etc.

4. Grendel Again

(Drawing: Costume for Hrothgar)

For twelve long and dismal winters did Grendel terrify the feast hall of King Hrothgar and none could stand against the monster. Thus did the power of Hrothgar grow less and his sorrows grow greater, and his feast hall was desolate. For none dared stay there when evening fell because of Grendel's deeds. Only Hrothgar might abide in Herot at his ease because a Godly charm was about the throne; a charm which Grendel could not break through and thus destroy Hrothgar.

And the king grew old beyond his years, which indeed were plentiful and prayed that some champion might come and rid him of this dreadful monster and vowed great gifts to such a man, if on all the earth one lived who could prevail against this fiendish Grendel.

It must be his prayers were heard, for news of Hrothgar's sore affliction traveled to the land of the Geats where Hygelac was a most just and mighty king. "Twas in Geatland that Beowulf lived.

(Tomorrow's story will tell about who Beowulf was.)

DELINQUENT LIST

A list, containing the names of the delinquent tax-payers, will be published in the newspapers after January 20, according to County Auditor R. O. Wead. The list will contain the names of those persons who failed to pay their June, 1924 and December, 1924 taxes.

Persons now on the delinquent list have until January 20 to pay their taxes. After publication, the list will be certified to the auditor of state and taxes will then be subject to a 10 per cent penalty, it is said.

Property which is kept on the delinquent list for four years, is then sold and the proceeds applied in payment of back taxes.

MRS. MALISSA HAGUE

Dayton.—"I have never taken a medicine that could compare with Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It is especially good for deep-seated coughs and bronchitis. I had a severe case of bronchitis, my bronchials were so sore, swollen and inflamed that I could not swallow. I was also nervous and weak. I took Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and it cured my bronchial trouble, the cough left me, and I got strong and well. This 'Discovery' enriches the blood and builds up the whole system to a good healthy state. I depend upon it entirely to keep me well and strong and it never fails."

Mrs. Melissa Hague, 411 McLain St. Health is your most valuable asset. Obtain Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery now, in liquid or tablets, from your neighborhood druggist, or send 10c to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., for trial pkg. Dr. Pierce will give you medical advice free, too.

Of course everyone is wearing felt. And here is one of the smart models with the very high crowns that end in a peak at the top. To make it seem even higher, a bow-like knot of felt trims the top most point.

And here is the hat Mitzi went home with. It is of felt. The four wings on top relieve the severe plainness. The crown starts to be square and then ends in a point. Well so far so good with Mitzi's budget. More tomorrow.

FISH OILS DEODORIZED

Discovery that fish oils can be deodorized by passing hydrogen, nitrogen or carbon dioxide gas through them has been announced by Dr. H. K. Benson, professor of chemical engineering in the University of Washington, at Seattle. This eliminates an objection to paints made with fish oils, of which there is a large potential production in the Pacific Northwest. Such paints are declared to have unusual durability.

MODISH MITZI—Hats Are On The Budget List Next

By Jay V. Jay

Each day Mitzi sets out to make part of her budget list come true. Yesterday she settled the matter of a street dress. Today she is going to look for hats. Dad will be surprised when he finds that she can not only make a budget but keep it as well.

Just as Mitzi thought. There is a great variety of hats of just the kind she wants. For instance, this little satin melon shaped hat with its frill over the crown. It's close fitting and has a becomingly small brim.

Of course everyone is wearing felt. And here is one of the smart models with the very high crowns that end in a peak at the top. To make it seem even higher, a bow-like knot of felt trims the top most point.

And here is the hat Mitzi went home with. It is of felt. The four wings on top relieve the severe plainness. The crown starts to be square and then ends in a point. Well so far so good with Mitzi's budget. More tomorrow.

HEARING ON CROW CHARGES LAUNCHED

NEW CABINET STRESSEMAN VICTORY

HOUSE WILL ACT ON CHILD LABOR ON JANUARY 27

Senator Will Move to Regulate Lobbying Next Month.

Columbus, O., Jan. 15.—Action on the question of ratifying the proposed child labor amendment to the federal constitution is expected to be taken in the house here on January 27, it was announced. At that time, Representative Gordon, Logan County as chairman of federal relations committee probably will report out the proposal without recommendation it was stated.

Although considerable sentiment seems to exist among legislators to defer final action till the next session of the assembly, in the meantime submitting the proposal to a statewide referendum vote, for advisory purposes, legislative leaders today were inclined to believe that the question of ratification will be decided at the present session and that it will be defeated in both senate and house by majorities of not less than 3 to 1.

Senator Garver, Holmes County, Democrat, has announced his intention of seeing to it that a resolution providing for a probe of activities of alleged legislative lobbyists is introduced in the senate within a month. Senator Bender, Cuyahoga, Republican, on the floor of the senate Wednesday, declared that Ohio's anti-lobbying law has not been obeyed during the past six years and that only a relatively small number of registered lobbyists complied with the requirement that they file expense accounts with the secretary of state. Another accusation was that lobbyists operated without obtaining licenses required by law.

New bills pending before the legislature today include:

IN SENATE:

By Bender, Cuyahoga, restricting jurisdiction of justices of the peace, mayors and other municipal officials to the districts in which they are elected; by Hays, Belmont, requiring autos to be parked at the side of country roads; by Hays, reducing the number of peremptory jury challenges to six from sixteen; by Garver, Holmes, strengthening the dog registration laws.

IN HOUSE:

By Knapp, Medina, providing for construction of main market and inter-county highways by state appropriation and removing assessments from abutting property; by Edgington, Clermont, requiring state highway department to keep in repair main market and inter-county highways through villages; by Davidson, Summit, providing for bill of sale for dogs and increasing registration fees; by Hines, Tuscarawas, enabling osteopathic physicians, enabling osteopathic physicians issued in other states, to be admitted to limited practice of medicine and surgery in Ohio; by Evans, Jackson, providing a bounty of 25 cents per head for killing crows.

A joint resolution by Senator Vorys, Franklin, provides for appointment of a joint committee of senators and representatives to co-operate with the state office building commission and to report within 30 days.

MARION STAR SUIT AGAINST BANKER HAS BEEN SETTLED

Marion, Ohio, Jan. 15.—The $1,200,000 damage suit brought against Frank A. Vanderlip by Louis H. Brush and Roy D. Moore, owners and publishers of the Marion Star has been settled, according to announcement in the Marion Star today. The amount of damages paid by Mr. Vanderlip was not made public.

The Star today will publish the following news story in connection with the settlement:

"Formal papers withdrawing the suits in Louis H. Brush and Roy D. Moore, of the Marion Star against Frank A. Vanderlip, of Scarborough, N. Y., will be filed in the United States court of the lower district of New York this afternoon or tomorrow morning.

"The settlement of the case grew out of a conference held at Marion several weeks ago, at which a mutual friend of the principals, among others, was present. An understanding was reached at that time, agreeable to all, that the litigation should be ended."

SECRETARY SLEMP EXPECTS TO RETIRE

Washington, Jan. 15.—C. Bascom Slemp, secretary to President Coolidge, will retire from that post on the fourth of March next and will be succeeded by Representative Everett Sanders, Republican of Indiana, whose term expires with the present congress, it was learned officially here today.

SCOTLAND YARD SOLVES MURDER WITHOUT HOLMES

Crowborough, Sussex, England, Jan. 15.—A murder mystery almost within the shadow of the home of Sir Arthur Conan-Doyle, author of the famous detective stories, confronted the police today. The victim was believed by the police to be Elsie Cameron, a pretty stenographer. Norman Thorn, her suitor, is under arrest.

The detention of Thorn came after he had been questioned steadily for sixteen hours by Scotland Yard detectives. He was then taken to his farm and the Scotland Yard men began digging at various places. Before long they had uncovered a small suitcase, containing women's clothing and a pair of eyeglasses. The missing girl wore glasses.

Miss Cameron had been missing since December 5. She left her home in London to come here to visit Thorn, to whom she was engaged. He is 24 and she was 26. Thorn was a well to do resident of the district. Since the girl's disappearance there have been many rumors that she had been killed and her body buried on Thorn's farm. Thorn has been one of the most active amateur detectives attempting to solve the mystery. He would point out a spot on his farm and say, "there's where the murder was committed, at least that's what the gossips are saying, and I am going to stay right here till the truth is known."

Neighbors tried to get in touch with Conan Doyle to see if he might use his scientific detective theories, but he was away from home.

BANKER'S FAMILY IN STRANGE HOLDUP.

LAWRENCE E. SANDS & JOHN W. SANDS

One of the most desperate holdups on record occurred in the Squirrel Hill home of Lawrence E. Sands, president of the First National Bank of Pittsburgh, Pa., where Sands, his wife, his son, John W. Sands, the butler and two maids were lined up by two armed men, who posed as gas company employees. The bandits demanded $20,000 on threat of kidnapping Mrs. Sands for ransom. When Sands explained he did not have $20,000 in the house, they forced him to telephone the bank for money, but the bank officials were cautious and sent for the police. In the meantime, young Sands had attempted to escape and was shot, not seriously. The robbers fled before police arrived.

GIRL ADMITS SLAYING MOTHER SO SHE COULD GO OUT MORE WITH MEN

San Francisco, Calif., Jan. 15.—Dorothy Ellingson, 16, arrested after a two day search today confessed killing her mother, Mrs. Annie Ellingson. The girl said she shot her mother because she had remonstrated with her against going out with men.

Mrs. Ellingson was shot through the back as she stooped to tie her shoe in the bedroom of her home in Third Avenue Tuesday.

Dorothy was arrested early today in a rooming house. At first she denied having shot her mother and told a detailed story in which she accused a "hop head" of having fired the shot. Under severe grilling, however, she broke down and made a full confession.

"Yes, I did it," she said. "Mother and I had a quarrel Monday night when I came in. She told me I must quit going out with men and get a job. I told her I wouldn't."

"Tuesday morning when we woke up, we renewed the quarrel. I finally got up and got my brother's revolver and went into her bedroom and shot her."

METHODISTS ATTEND COUNTY CONFERENCE IN XENIA WEDNESDAY

A large number of Methodists from the entire county Wednesday attended the special conference at the First Methodist Church, when Dr. E. O. Crist, District Superintendent, presided.

Several matters of business relating to the pastoral charges of the county were transacted. Dr. F. W. Stanton, Dr. V. F. Brown, both of Xenia, and the Rev. Joseph Bennett, of Jamestown, were appointed a committee on evangelism for the entire county.

G. P. Stewart, Dayton, president of the Lay Association of the Dayton District, delivered an inspiring address on "The Layman's Work in the Church." Mr. Stewart spoke in the place of E. C. Harley, who could not appear on account of illness.

Defiant when arrested and alternately tearful and giggling as she was questioned, the girl who had danced her way down the jazz trail to a murder charge, today seemed to lack comprehension of the nature of her deed, officers said.

After signing the confession which will result in a formal murder charge, according to police, being placed against her today, the girl posed time for time for photographers and smiled at their best. The girl told police that following the shooting she packed her clothes in a suitcase, secured $8 or $10 from her mother's purse and taking a bank book showing a balance of $25, went immediately to a rooming house where she secured a room and paid two weeks in advance.

There she apparently made elaborate plans by which she hoped to hide her identity. She changed her name to "Montana Daneri," and provided herself with an identification book in which she entered the notation: "Mother and Bud, 413 West 27th Street, New York City."

But her love for companionship of men which led to the quarrel in which her mother was slain, proved her undoing.

Tuesday night while her brother and father were finding the body of the mother and wife in the humble little Third Avenue cottage, Dorothy went to a party, she told the police.

She was accompanied by Dave Stein. He took her home about midnight but as they neared the house, she told him she was not living there any longer, and he took her to her rooming house.

Wednesday she had telephoned another male friend and when told he was not in left a call for "Dorothy Daneri."

This man did not recognize the phone number given nor the name Daneri, but told police who traced the call and arrested the girl.

About the same time they located Stein.

They had traced the jazz trail of the girl through liquor parties, beach parties, and late hours. A diary found in her room although covering only a few days, had told this tale in her own words.

In the rooming house bedroom where she was arrested the police found issues of all the San Francisco papers telling of the killing of Mrs. Ellingson. They were opened to the pictures of the slain woman and the then missing daughter.

REWARD OFFERED IN SLAYING OF NAUTCH GIRL'S COMPANION

Girl, Beauty Destroyed Was Favorite of The Maharajah

Bombay, Jan. 15.—A reward of 10,000 rupees was offered by the police today for information which would lead to the arrest of the slayers of Abdir Kadir Bawla the wealthy young merchant who was killed while with Mumtaz Begum, a beautiful Nautch girl.

Another suspect was arrested today, making two Parthian tribesmen now in custody. The condition of the Nautch girl, whose face was slashed by the assailants with the purpose of destroying her beauty was still critical.

Authorities revealed that Mumtaz was the beneficiary of an income from the district of Indore, where she had been a consort of the Maharajah. In the annual budget of Indore, $9,000 yearly was set aside for her, it was said.

Mumtaz Begum means "beautiful queen" and the authorities said that she was maintained with all the luxuries of a queen. The Maharajah, they said, gave her innumerable costly gifts.

An air of mystery was thrown about the police inquiry this afternoon after one of the Parthian tribesmen was reported to have made a confession. The authorities said that while warnings had been sent to Mumtaz to end her romance with Bawla, the merchant now dead, there was no foundation to reports that the Maharajah had directed or even prompted the killing of Bawla.

PETITION ASKS FOR FEDERAL CONTROL OF "PRO" BASEBALL

Ban Johnson Said To Have Endorsed Paper In Circulation

New York, Jan. 15.—Interest in baseball circles today centered in the circulation of a petition, endorsed by Ban Johnson, asking congress to pass a measure placing professional baseball under governmental control.

According to the plan this could be done by the appointment of a federal commission by the president.

The petition bears at the top a letter from Ban Johnson to Joseph Collier, of Cleveland, approving the idea of government regulation of baseball. Collier is said to be behind the movement.

Its seven chief aims, including several novel suggestions, are then set forth. Among other things suggested is the licensing of its clubs, managers, players, coach and umpires, prohibition of one man owning more than one club in the same league, a ban on intra-league sales and trades without the consent of the majority of the clubs and payment of the same salary to each player, depending upon length of service.

Mrs. Louise Thiers, of Milwaukee, is believed to be the oldest voter in the United States. She is 110 years of age, retains all of her faculties and is especially interested in politics. Recently she was thanked by President Coolidge for her support.

DR. HANS LUTHER IS APPOINTED AS CHANCELLOR

New Body Will Back Efforts to Fulfill Obligations

Berlin, Jan. 15.—Dr. Hans Luther, former finance minister, probably will be formally charged today to form a new cabinet ending the period of uncertainty and bitter political strife which has endured since the elections. President Ebert formally appointed Dr. Luther, chancellor, this afternoon.

Dr. Luther, renowned as one of Germany's greatest financial experts as well as a clever negotiator has organized and almost completed the new ministry behind the scenes. It will be a conservative bourgeois cabinet. His selections thus far stand:

Chancellor, Dr. Hans Luther.
Foreign Minister, Dr. Gustave Stresemann.
Finance Minister, Dr. Saenisch.
Minister of the Interior, Herr Schiele.
Minister of Agriculture, Count Kanitz.
Minister of Commerce, Herr Neuhaus.
Minister of Labor, Dr. Heinrich Brauns.
Minister of Justice, Herr Schollen.
Minister of Posts, Herr Stengel.
Minister of the Army, Dr. Otto Gessler.

Stresemann, Kanitz, Brauns and Gessler, held the same posts in the Marx cabinet. Schiele is head of the Nationalist party. Saenisch and Neuhaus held the same positions in the Prussian cabinet to which Luther has assigned them and Stengel was minister of posts in the Cuno cabinet. Schollen, a centrist, comes to the cabinet as an expert.

The new lineup was herald here as a victory for Foreign Minister Stresemann.

According to the repeated assertions of Dr. Luther, the new cabinet will hold to continuity of foreign policy meaning it will back loyally German attempts to fulfill the Dawes obligations. This intention is reflected in the continuation of Stresemann as foreign minister.

ARGUMENTS ENDED IN MANDAMUS SUIT AGAINST CO. AUDITOR

Arguments before the State Supreme Court in Columbus were concluded Wednesday in the hearing of the mandamus suit for $6,000 against the Greene County Auditor's office for non-payment of money alleged to be due the state for the care, board and medical attention of delinquent children committed to the State Board of Charities by the Juvenile Court. The Supreme Court is expected to hand down a decision in a week or ten days.

Attorneys C. L. Darlington and J. K. Williamson represented the county during the two day hearing and the point was brought out that there is an adequate remedy at law in Common Pleas Court; and that the case could have been heard before a jury rather than bring the mandamus action.

A Common Pleas jury might also compel the county auditor to pay the amount of the bill or could find that not all of the items listed were due the state, it is said. In this way it could first be ascertained whether or not the bill was lawful and the county owed the state money.

The State Attorney General brought the action against the county auditor's office early in the spring of 1924 when County Auditor R. O. Wead refused to pay the bill.

NO BANK ROBBERY BECAUSE ROBBERS ARE UNDER ARREST

Washington, Jan. 15.—There will be no robbery at the Farmers' and Mechanics' bank of Shepherdstown, W. Va., today. Washington police saw to that last night when they arrested three youths who, it is charged, were in the midst of completing plans for the holdup and getaway.

The bank was scheduled to receive $30,000 this morning and this sum was the object of the proposed robbery. One of the boys was released but the other two, Jack W. Lillis, 20, and Ernest W. Forester, 17, were held pending investigation.

Police said that when they entered the room occupied by Lillis, the three boys were around a table studying a map of Shepherdstown, showing the location of the bank and the average of escape which they planned to accomplish with a stolen automobile. Masks and ammunition were found in the room.

INFIRMARY INMATES TELL OF SPOILED FOOD SERVED AND STORIES OF CRUELTY

Witnesses For Commissioners Heard Thursday Morning —Defense to Have Inning at Afternoon Session —Sheik Discovered.

Allegations of Greene County Commissioners that D. E. Crow, superintendent of the County Infirmary had been guilty of inefficiency, dishonesty, incompetency and neglect of duty, were argued pro and con at the opening of the hearing before the State Civil Service Commission Thursday morning at the infirmary with no startling testimony produced in the examination of the witnesses.

Four witnesses, inmates and employees at the home, were called by Attorney H. D. Smith, in prosecution, and one in rebuttal before the hearing adjourned at 11:30 o'clock. Witnesses for the defense were not to be called until later in the afternoon session declared Attorney W. L. Miller, counsel for Crow.

Introduction of testimony and evidence will probably be completed late Thursday afternoon, according to attorneys as the number of witnesses called in rebuttal will depend largely on the testimony introduced.

William S. Bundy and Rollin Swisher, of Columbus, compose the Civil Service Commission which is hearing the charges alleged by the commissioners in their effort to oust Crow from his position.

The hearing was resumed at 12:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon after the noon recess which both the commission and Crow and his wife were guests of the County Commissioners for lunch.

William Hughes, the first witness, farmer for the Home, testified that Crow had interfered with his planting of crops and that friends and relatives were weekly guests of Mr. and Mrs. Crow for meals and visits. He said that Charles Vannordall, stepson of Crow worked at the Home during vacation and received pay for his labor besides meals and board.

Testimony was also introduced by Hughes that on one occasion he saw garden truck placed in an auto truck but under cross examination admitted that during a short period of absence, the food-stuffs could have been removed and not carried away.

Walter Redmond, butcher, and engineer of the home, told of noticing spoiled meat and its unusual scarcity. He said that he had slept in the boiler room for one week but had later been removed to sleeping quarters in the hallway.

Milton Smith, inmate, testified that meals were poor and much of the eatables soured. Butter was rarely put on the table, separated milk was given the inmates and eggs and poultry were scarce also, he said. At one time, sixteen inmates were in the hospital suffering from dysentery because of the spoiled food, he said.

Two thefts of chickens were noticed by him and twenty were stolen one night although he did not know the offender. Several bushels of garden truck were also missed, he said.

Smith admitted that he was something of a "shiek" at the home and may have been somewhat "sweet" on a woman inmate, which led to an altercation with Crow that resulted in his banishment to the third floor for several weeks. During that time he was fed nothing by Crow, he said, but food was delivered to him by the woman in the case and other employees by way of a back stairway.

Mrs. Alta Reynolds, former employee, told of resigning from her duties after words with Crow over an inmate that had been locked up in the Home jail when he thoughtlessly wandered away several times.

She said that Crow shoved the man into the jail during one of the hottest days last summer and imprisoned him. She said that both Russell and Charles Vannordall, stepsons of Crow, were visitors at the home nearly every week while she was there.

WIFE SLAYER WHO ESCAPED BROUGHT BACK BY MARSHAL

Lima, O., Jan. 15.—Five weeks ago Hamilton Barnett, indicted wife slayer wanted by the Saylerville, Ky., authorities, escaped from the village jail at Alger, east of this city. Today he was safely lodged in the lock-up at Saylerville and Marshal Jack Cochran of Alger is home enroute with $500 reward money in his pocket.

As soon as Barnett made his escape by prying open a cell door, Marshal Cochran started on his trail. On Saturday he learned that his escaped prisoner was in the hills of southern Ohio near the river and he proceeded to go after him.

Barnett showed fight when confronted by the marshal but a .45 calibre pistol applied to his stomach made him docile. Cochran then escorted his prisoner to Saylerville, pocketed the $500 reward and started homeward.

Gluecraft On The Dressing Table

ANY desired color scheme to harmonize with one's boudoir may be selected. In making this lovely dressing table set, the clock case, comb rack, picture frame, glove box and tray are made on foundations of cardboard to which broad bands of brocade ribbon are glued. An edging of gold novelty ribbon is added for both finish and decoration. For the brush, hand-mirror, doll lamp, table lamp, powder bowl and wall mirror, the articles themselves, of an inexpensive make, are first purchased and then decorated. Petals of old rose silk and leaves of green velvet are glued to the powder bowl. The small doll lamp has a costume of ribbon and silk glued together and then glued onto the body. A net foundation is first applied with glue to the wire shade of the table lamp, and is then covered with silk and ribbon which are also leaped into place.

PAINTING THE SMALL PIECES

When painting furniture such as chairs, small tables, stands and desks (pieces small enough to handle) or any other objects not too large to move, it is a good plan to always turn the furniture upside down and paint the legs first. This allows the upper surface to remain dry until the last and the piece can be handled easier.

"KING OF THE IVORIES"

Now it is that Harry M. Snodgrass, who was in prison, is released from his shackles, that he might go forth to receive the plaudits of the outer world.

Music, which it has said, has charms to soothe the savage breast, has also proved capable of shortening the punishment of Snodgrass, a convicted criminal, and given him a new chance in the world.

For Snodgrass is a piano player, who came to nation wide fame through the operation of the radio, over which he broadcast nightly, from a station at Jefferson City, Mo., where the state prison is located. Nightly he was announced as "King of the Ivories." And it so came to pass that this prisoner, serving behind locked doors as punishment for his crime, won a place in the hearts of millions of radio fans, through his playing.

A poet has written of the sort of fame that comes to one that compels the multitude to beat a path to his door, Harry M. Snodgrass, for whom fame blossomed behind gray prison walls, might endorse the truth of his classical lines. For when Snodgrass leaves the state prison he will have $6,000 in his pockets, an automobile presented by friends and a contract calling for a vaudeville engagement at $600 a week.

Fame and plaudits and recognition of his ability, may, in this case, not only win Snodgrass his freedom, but mellow the bitterness in his heart toward his fellow man, and heal the trait that led him to crime. But whether the release of Snodgrass will work out for good or bad, the whole is the proof of that strange quality in Americans that causes them to create their heroes out of the humble clay and lay their plaudits at the feet of anyone who strikes the popular fancy.

It is a travesty on America's spirit of fair play that Harry Snodgrass, an honest man, might have starved to death with his talent while Harry Snodgrass, a criminal is elaborately acclaimed.

It is also a sad commentary that blind genius at Kansas City, who achieved his talent without the aid of sight and who is a greater master of piano technique, has struck no such popular chord of sympathy, although he also broadcasts his music.

THE COURT HOUSE CLOCK

The face of the Court House clock, is now bright and clean, so that at night the light shines through and the dial can be seen at a great distance.

We can imagine that the clock now says: "Cleanliness is next to Godliness. And I, being already nearer God than mortals on the ground, am pleased to think that my new cleanliness places me in even greater favor. Thus I may now smile in friendly brightness upon all who depend upon me to learn the passing of the hours."

Xenians, who are proud of the Court House, are glad that the face of the clock has been newly washed. County authorities who made the change possible are deserving of thanks.

IN JUSTICE TO THE GOVERNOR OF KANSAS

The final phase of the Davis administration in Kansas is nothing less than tragic. It is not merely humiliating to the governor. It is a blow to the state and to the cause of popular government that developments in the pardon of wealthy convicts should be of such character as to call for a legal investigation.

Yet such an investigation is necessary in justice both to Governor Davis and the state. Evidence has been produced that the governor's son after receiving a large sum of money delivered a pardon from the governor.

The evidence is of such a nature that it cannot be ignored. It requires the most thorough-going sifting. There should be no suspicion of politics in the inquiry. The matter is one in which it is vital that only the truth should be sought without regard to political effect.

The honor of Kansas is involved. There could be nothing more abhorrent than trafficking in the pardoning power. Men and women of both parties will rejoice if the evidence clears the governor of blame.—Kansas City Star.

JUST FOLKS

FATHERS' ADVICE

My dad and I, long years ago, were walking down the street
When suddenly a little dog came yelping round our feet.
He snarled and snarled so viciously
—that angry little pup
Appeared to me as though he thought that he could eat us up;
I turned and threw some stones at him which always missed the mark.
But when I tried to drive him off the louder he would bark.
"Now, son," my father said to me,
"Just plop along your way
Don't turn your head for yelping dogs.
Remember what I say!
You'll notice if you pay no heed to him and hold your peace.
That little 'og will soon grow tired and all his noise will cease;
But every time you stamp your foot and shout to him: 'Begone,'
You show that he's annoying you and keep him following on."

"It takes a dog to fight a dog! Post that above your door!"
When canines come and snarl at you,
don't be a dog yourself
And later, when you're older grown,
and petty men attack,
Don't stoop to pick up stones to throw, don't try to answer back;
Just walk right on and pay no heed to anything they say
And very soon they'll give it up and turn and run away.

It is a very ancient dodge these petty minds employ.
They say the gods find angry man the man they would destroy.

1905-Twenty Years Ago-1925

The new light, heat, and power plant has been put in operation at Wilberforce University and the buildings which have heretofore been heated by individual plants are now being furnished heat by a central station.

Dr. W. A. Galloway will leave within the next few days for a delightful sojourn in the South. Fire broke out in a house on East Second Street Sunday morning and completely destroyed the frame building.

A match game will take place at the Schmidt and Zetter bowling alleys Tuesday evening, between the Dayton Heralds and the Xenia Indians.

ers: We have all painted the wooden dress hangers, or covered them with padding and silk ribbon. But these new and original ones, were covered with Germantown worsted crocheted (with the simple double crochet stitch into a strip which just covered both sides of the wood and was sewed into places with a worsted thread. The hook part was covered by a worsted doll's head made from a small ball of the yarn with eyes, nose and mouth sewed upon it. A pretty bow covered the spot where this doll's head joined the wood part of the hanger.

As usual after the Christmas Holidays, I have made the rounds of my friends' houses to see the new fancywork articles which were received as Christmas gifts. Here are a few of the most original:

Glass Candelsticks with a French Touch: Ordinary glass candelsticks were used for this gift, with square column and square base. Gold net had been sewed around the column to the top, and also over the flat base, decorated here and there with small silk-ribbon flowers in many colors. On the very bottom of the candlestick (underneath) a piece of blue ribbon had been pasted (this ribbon was cut the exact size of the flat, square base) and its blue showed through the glass and also through the gold net when the candlestick stood in its right position. In this way, the entire candlestick was given a dainty blue tint. To complete the gift, a blue wax candle was stuck in the top.

The New Handkerchief Cases: These were circular in shape, measuring five inches in diameter, so that they would amply hold a handkerchief or two, which were folded into a small square in the ordinary way. The case was made of two parts of equal size—an upper circle and a lower one, each padded with flannel, scented, covered with pale pink silk and finished around the edge with a narrow border of "Val" lace. The top pink circle was decorated with a wider frill of lace sewed on in a circle at its center, and in the very middle was a flat bunch of tiny, silk-ribbon roses. The two halves of the case were caught together at the edge in only one place—thus making it easy for one to open it in a hurry and take out a handkerchief. The trouble with the old-fashioned handkerchief cases was that one had to fuss untiringly ribbons or unfolding ends to get at their contents! This one resembles two pancakes which open like an oyster.

MAKING AND BREAKING HABITS

We are all veritable bundles of habits.

All our power for good and happiness would be lost if we were not such. The great thing comes to pass by doing the simple good thing over and over again.

I get great thrills in reading biographies telling of the ways and means whereby men and women rose from obscurity to fame and large usefulness.

And this is what I learn: hard-ship and hardship and hard-ship. Always hardship before applause, wealth and luxuries.

Joseph Pulitzer, late publisher of The New York World, came to America as a young boy from Hungary. Even then he abhorred red tape and so jumped off the boat on which he came across the ocean and swam to the shore of his dreams.

He stopped at a hotel on Park Row, New York, but was asked to leave because the boss didn't like the looks of his ragged clothes and worn shoes. Twenty years later Pulitzer bought that hotel, tore it down and put up the great World Building that now stands upon the site.

Joseph Pulitzer learned the value back of reading very early in life. Reading was his greatest habit. And after he became blind he hired a dozen secretaries to read to him and to talk of what they had read.

A path is just a habit—the habit of feet working their way across the earth until the grass all dies. To obliterate that path you have to dig it up and plant new seed and not walk upon it.

To form a habit you must do one thing over and over again. To break a habit you must put something else in the place of the thing you have made your habit out of.

You can't have too many good habits and you can't afford to have too many bad habits.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. These little olive-colored tablets are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel.

The pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel. Let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place.

Headaches, "dullness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "lousy" and "heavy." They "clear" clouded brain and "perk up" the spirits. 15c and 30c.

YESTERDAY'S JUNIOR PUZZLE ANSWER

Princess Mary to Visit Canada
London, Jan. 15.—So successful was the recent visit of the Prince of Wales to Canada that Princess Mary and her husband, Viscount Lascelles, have virtually decided to visit the Dominion next year, it is reported authoritatively.

Surprising indeed is the ignorance that prevails regarding the nature and causes of colds and coughs. In the first place, it is impossible to "catch cold." It is not cold air, but impure air, that is the main cause of these troubles. When one is in close or vitiated atmosphere and the membranous lining of head or throat becomes on this account irritated or inflamed, it should be readily understood that the mucous accumulations must be expelled before a cure can be effected. When a person has really caught his cold, the doors of relief, afforded by getting out-of-doors into a healthier atmosphere is to cough up or sneeze out the products of his affection. These are only symptoms of the real trouble which he experiences but as they are what he feels and sees, he ascribes his trouble to the colder, purer air which is giving him the relief that Nature provides for his benefit. Instead of the cough or cold being the sufferer's enemy, it is the best friend he could have at such a time. If we did not have such means of relief as coughs and colds the mortality from such maladies would be frightful to contemplate.

Bronchitis, asthma, and catarrh are really the chronic conditions resulting from frequent acute attacks and the inability of the system entirely to rid itself of the more or less putrid secretions of the membranous lining of the head or throat. This inability is simply due to a lowered general vitality. It must be plain that the true cure lies in increasing vitality, in order that the system itself may have power to throw off the poisons infecting the delicate membranes. Artificial stimulants and spraying and smoke treatments cannot accomplish this. Of course, treatment that will temporarily cleanse or dry up the products of the affection afford relief for the time being, but these accumulations must certainly reappear, for the treatment does not remove the cause of the trouble—deficient vitality.

Cold water and cold air are among the best treatments for colds and coughs. Diet, too, has considerable to do with susceptibility to colds and their cure. However, strong vitality is the surest preventive of pneumonia and consumption.

BROADCAST BY STATION WONES

Central High School basketball team will be called upon to take on one of the hardest games of the season Friday night when it faces McClain High at Greenfield. The McClain tossers have not dropped a game to date, having five wins in their record book. They beat Columbus East High by a 22 to 12 score, while Stivers of Dayton beat the Columbus five by two points. According to the dope Greenfield has quite a good team. Mossbarger, who plays left forward seems to be their best bet and the locals had better keep an eagle eye upon him Friday night.

Central's win over Bradford last week gave them confidence but in taking on Greenfield they will be facing a much stronger team than Bradford. The loss of Allen Zell, veteran center, was a blow to the team and its followers. Zell has had three years experience at tipping the ball off and while fairly good on offense he was a whale on defense. His absence will no doubt be missed all season. Coach Ballantyne has shifted Buell from guard to center while Huston has taken Buell's place at the guard position. Just how this will work out is not known but it seemed to be O. K. last week. On Saturday night the team will journey to Urbana and meet the high school team of that place. Urbana has not been going so good this season so the locals should not encounter much trouble from them.

Wilberforce University basketball team, which won the Midwest championship among colored colleges last season will make another bid for the same bunting this season. To date it has played five games losing two and this to the strong Loendi five of Pittsburgh, Pa. by a 37 to 21 score. They have wins over Cleveland Acmea, Dayton Marathons and Medway Collegians. The Medway bunch has been together for four seasons or so and during that time they have not tasted defeat over half dozen times. Wilberforce beat them a week ago by a 33 to 33 score. The Collegians players claimed Wilberforce was the best team they have ever played.

Dean Mohr, a graduate of Illinois University is mentor of the colored lads. He has been at Wilberforce for three seasons. Last season they dropped but one game while they won sixteen. The Chicago Defenders was the only team able to turn them back and it took them an overtime period to do so, the score being 12 to 10. Mohr developed Gaston Lewis, former Caesar Creek High player, into a wonderful forward. Lewis made the mythical All-American Colored College five last season. Ward, Wilberforce guard, also landed a place. Mohr has the same two lads back this year while he also has Huff, last season's guard and Joe Anderson, local basketball flash. With this array of talent and under Mohr's tutelage they will no doubt have another successful season.

CULLED SEED PAYS EXPERTS DECLARE

Cull your seed just as you cull your chickens and dairy cows. It is the word crops extension specialists at the Ohio State University pass along to Ohio farmers.

It is good policy to have crops grown from carefully selected seed. The crops men say, because it pays consistent dividends. It is for that reason that the Ohio Agricultural Experiment Station at Wooster and the research men at the state university have spent years in developing grain varieties that will resist disease, yield well, and at the same time adapt themselves to Ohio conditions.

Wheat the crops specialists recommend, should only be grown in Ohio from seed clean and free from weed seed and from one of the dozen varieties proved to be best in this state. Six or eight varieties of oats, some adapted to the southern half of the state better than others for example, are listed as virtually free from smut, one of the greatest enemies of the crop.

In their annual report just filed the crops specialists announce this as their goal: get every farmer in Ohio to appreciate the value of good seed.

MORE BRITISH OUT OF WORK

Figures presented by the Ministry show 1,370,800 persons are unemployed, an increase of 33,915 over last week's figures, and 40,125 more than during the corresponding week of 1924.

TRY SULPHUR ON AN ECZEMA SKIN

Because of its germ destroying properties, this sulphur preparation instantly brings ease from skin irritation, soothes and heals the eczema right up and leaves the skin clear and smooth.

And what a hit these flesh producing tablets have made. One druggist tripped his sales in one week. Everybody knows that nasty-tasting, evil-smelling Cod Liver Oil is a wonderful vitaminizer, flesh producer and health creator.

But who wants to swallow the horrible stuff when these wonderful tablets—McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets, are just as good and so easy to take.

Your Income Tax

Reduction of the income tax was effected by the revenue act of 1924. A rate reduction, however, was not the only benefit afforded by this legislation. Increase in the exemption for married persons and heads of families, a 25 per cent reduction on "earned income", and other changes are of immediate interest to every taxpayer. As an aid, therefore, in the preparation of income tax returns for the year 1924 the Bureau of Internal Revenue has prepared a series of articles on the new act and the regulations governing its administration, of which this is the first. The salaried man, wage earner, professional and business man—in fact every class of taxpayer—will be fully informed of their requirements and privileges. Taxpayers are advised to preserve these articles as a guide in the making of their returns.

Returns are required of every single person whose net income for 1924 was $1,000 or more or whose gross income was $5,000 or more and of every married person living with husband or wife whose net income was $2,500 or more or whose gross income was $5,000 or more. Divorced or married persons separated by mutual consent are classed as single persons. Married persons living together are required to file a return if their aggregate net income was $2,500 or more or the aggregate gross income was $5,000 or more.

Husband and wife living together may include the income of each in a single joint return, or each may file separate returns showing the income of each. Where a joint return is filed, the tax is computed on the aggregate income and all deductions and credits to which either is entitled is taken from such aggregate income.

If a wife does not file a separate return or joint with her husband in a return, the husband is required to include in his return all income received by the wife in payment of wages, salary, or from the sale of products of her labor. In the returns of married persons must be included also the income of dependent minor children.

It should be remembered that a husband and wife living together need make no return unless their aggregate net income for 1924 was $2,500 or more or the aggregate gross income was $5,000 or more. Last year returns were required of such married persons whose aggregate net income was $2,000 or more.

BELIEVE LEONARD HAS DESERTED THE RING FOR THE STAGE

New York, Jan. 15.—Benny Leonard, the young man who gets his training nowadays by jumping at conclusions will leave town tomorrow for Chicago where on Monday he will open a vaudeville engagement of many weeks.

The well known actor will receive $3,000 a week for his trouble if any, and intimate friends here predict that the prize ring will see him no more.

Those on the inside are so certain of Leonard's retirement that they predict official verification will be forthcoming from the gentleman himself before the end of the winter season. They declare that Benny is about ready to yield to the importunities of his mother, who has come to the conclusion that the footlights lend greater dignity than the fist flourish. Her argument that a boxfighter leads a hand to mouth existence is borne out by the fact that Benny has had a few teeth jammed back into his windpipe.

That a statement of his intentions will be issued this week as reported, has been characterized by Leonard as "bunk." He, it seems, has nothing to say at this time and is proceeding to say it, eloquently. But his friends point to the fact that he weighs close to 145 pounds stripped and therefore he could not make the lightweight limit.

FIVE HUNDRED SEE PHONE OPERATION AT EXCHANGE HERE

Five hundred people visited the Xenia exchange of The Ohio Bell Telephone Company during the first three days of "Visitors' Week," according to H. W. Cleaver, commercial manager here.

Of these, 250 visited the exchange Wednesday, when better weather prevailed, while the others were present the first two days, when the weather conditions kept down the number. With good weather during the rest of the week, it is expected crowds will exceed in number those of the first half of the week.

An interesting feature of the demonstration, shows how a rapid shaking of the receiver hook has no effect in aiding service. A demonstration telephone in the exchange is used to prove that rapid shaking of the hook fails to light the signal bulb on the exchange board while a slow movement of the hook, flashes the light and signals the operator.

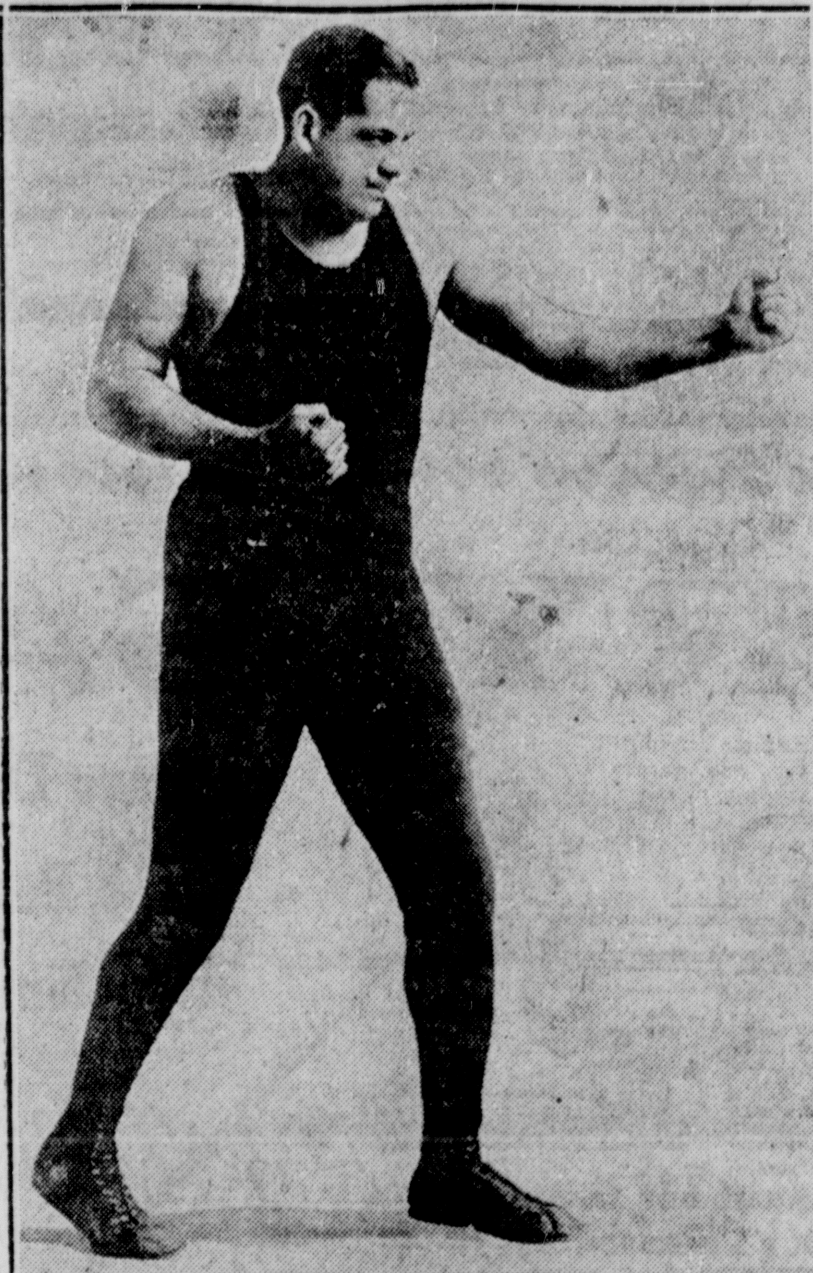

THE TOO HIGH OR TOO LOW CEILING

If the ceilings of your rooms are too high, they can be made to appear lower by decorating the walls up to about two or three feet of the ceiling, or by using flat tone paint on the walls either the same color as the ceiling or a color combination. Should the ceilings be too low, height can be produced by finishing them in a flat tone paint considerably lighter than the walls.

FINISH THE INSIDE OF DRAWERS

A coat of a velvet finish, varnish applied to the inside of drawers insures their being dust proof and sanitary besides being attractive. Another method now in vogue is applying, before varnishing, a coat of flat tone paint to the drawers of the table or desk which is in harmony with the color suggestion carried out in the room.

HURLS "STRANGLER" LEWIS FROM RING.

WAYNE H. ("BIG") MUNN, N.Y.

An erstwhile University of Nebraska football player, who tried boxing unsuccessfully, and who is a novice at wrestling, is now world's heavyweight wrestling champion. He is Wayne H. ("Big") Munn, who, by ponderous strength, broke "Strangler" Lewis's fearful headlocks and hurled him into submission in Kansas City. Munn won the first third fall and lost the second when he picked up the giant Lewis and threw him out of the ring. The referee disqualified him, but Lewis, when he re-entered the ring, was apparently badly hurt and lost the third fall in less than a minute. Munn stands six feet seven inches in height and weighs 253 pounds. Lewis had to go to a hospital, unable to wrestle for a year.

TWO HUNDRED FARM BUREAU MEMBERS HEAR REPORTS AT ANNUAL MEETING THURSDAY

More than two hundred people attended the morning session of the annual meeting of the Greene County Farm Bureau, in the assembly room of the Court House, Thursday, to hear the reports of the officers of the organization.

The program opened with the invocation by the Rev. R. G. Kyle, followed by the singing of "America" by the audience.

W. B. Bryson, president of the Greene County Farm Bureau, delivered his annual address to the body. He praised the strides of the bureau within the last year and gave a resume of past achievement, made successful through the co-operation of the farmers of the county.

Herman Eavey, treasurer of the county organization gave his report of the finances of the year, followed by the report of W. W. Anderson, secretary.

The accomplishments of the past year, through the extension program and the co-operative organizations of the county were reviewed by Ford S. Prince, county agent, in his report.

In Mr. Prince's opinion, the outstanding accomplishment of the year was the work among the boys' and girls' clubs. Three hundred and thirteen young people were enrolled in the clubs in 1924 he said, and there were thirty-three leaders. Twenty-five clubs and 84 per cent of the members who started the year, finished and 264 exhibited at the Greene County Fair.

The membership and work was an increase of about 100 per cent over last year, Mr. Prince said. He spoke of the successes of the demonstration teams of the county at the Ohio State Fair last fall.

One million dollars worth of Greene County produce was marketed by the co-operative organizations during the past year, the report said. The marketing plan meant a saving of $80,000 to Greene County farmers.

Other projects listed by Mr. Prince in his report included the testing of 50,000 ears of seed corn, an increase of an acreage of 60 per cent in Trum bull wheat, introduced by the Farm Bureau; the use of 850 tons of lime-stone for soil improvement and certfied seed work which brought increased yields.

The demonstration work of 1924 included orchard work, worm culture, sheep parasites, poultry demonstration, poultry culling, and poultry housing. The keeping of farm accounts was introduced in the county school by the organization.

Sixty-three women were enrolled in the clothing club work. The testing of cattle for tuberculosis on the area plan, which was started in the county last year, is being continued, Mr. Prince announced.

M. D. Lincoln, executive secretary of the Ohio Farm Bureau Federation, addressed the meeting, Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. He talked on "The Outlook for the Farm Bureau."

The afternoon program was also featured by an address on "Home Agent Work" by Miss Adele Koch and "Rural Welfare Needs" by Miss Ella Hans.

Music by a male quartette augmented both programs.

ESKIMAU PUPILS LEARN RAPIDLY BY RADIO PROGRAMS

New York, N. Y., January 10.—The Department of the Interior has established a school for the natives at Pilot Station, which is located on the Yukon River, about one hundred and fifty miles from the Bering Sea. In an effort to provide the same advantages now enjoyed by the school children in the States.

Located as they are, almost within the Arctic circle, they suffer the hardships of extreme northern winters. Communication facilities are very poor, as can be imagined from the fact that it requires newspapers and letters from three to six months to get there.

Miss Inez Moore, who teaches school during the day, realizes the isolation of the school and had a long distance radio receiver installed for the purpose of keeping in touch with the outside world.

Miss Moore finds the radio very valuable in teaching the elementary principles of American History and Politics. American political speakers over the radio, influence her pupils to such a degree that she has no difficulty in holding their interest and she feels that they now have a better realization of the principals and ideals of American Government.

Each night, the Eskimaux crowd the little school room to enjoy the broadcast programs. Besides political news, they have the best hotel orchestras, lectures and the latest news from the outside world. In spite of the distance and location, they listened to the play "Turn to the Right" broadcast from K G O, Oakland, California.

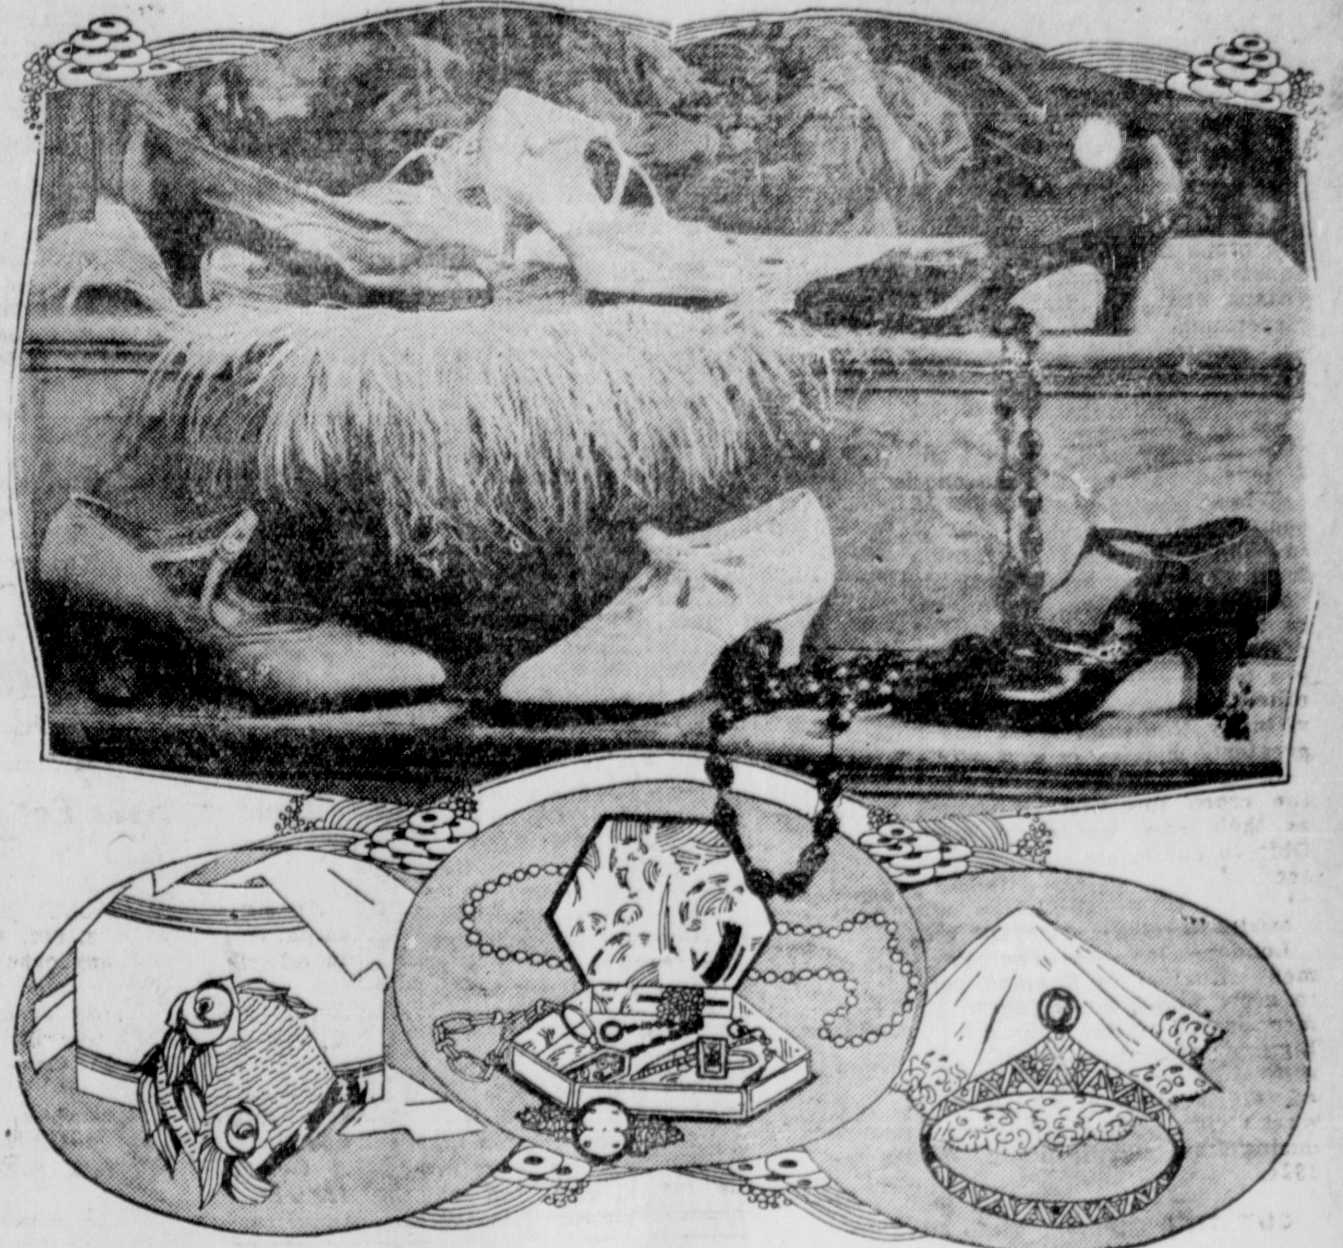

It is hard to realize how far this little school in the frozen north is from civilization, but some idea can be gleaned from the fact that it took six months for a letter from the Honorable F. A. Jeters, an uncle of Miss Moore's, to arrive, announcing his election to office of Secretary of State of Idaho.

Pilot Station, Alaska, where the Department of the Interior has established the Alaska native school is about 62 degrees North Latitude, 162 degrees, 57 minutes West Longitude.

PAINT RADIATORS

Don't make the mistake of painting your furnace registers, radiators or heating pipes in sharp contrast to the background of your room for it breaks the general color scheme and tends to make a room look ugly. It is much better to do these fixtures in the same shade as the walls and they are not easily perceived.

The Mode of the Season

Six attractive models in kid, representing the newest and smartest in afternoon shoes, both formal and informal. The black kid pump in the upper left hand corner is appropriate for morning and informal afternoon wear with simple frocks. The shoe in the upper center is of silver kid, and suitable for the more elaborate evening gowns. The brown kid shoe to the right shows to advantage the smartness of the new lizard trim when combined with the softness of kid. Lower left, an Oriental gray kid shoe, simple of line and cut, indicating the change from intricate openwork. The white kid shoe, with the flower-petal cut-out, is appropriate for the light, dainty gowns of mid-summer, while the shoe at the right illustrates, once more, the effectiveness and smartness of black kid.

THE CREST OF THE MEDICIS

SIGN OF THE MONEY
LENDER TODAY

Display advertising is a 5,000 year old business.

The first advertising which is recorded is in the form of a sheet of Egyptian papyrus parchment now on view at the British museum. This advertisement for the return of a lost slave, offering a reward. The ad is dated 3,000 B. C.

Even the great billboards which cause so much comment at present are nothing new in the advertising line. Many of the houses in Pompeii had their sides plastered with painted ads.

The Phoenicians were even more enterprising. They wrote ads on great billboards constructed for the purpose along the sea coasts and when night time came they built huge fires to illuminate these boards.

Trademarks and trade signs were quite common on pottery thousands of years ago. One of the most interesting trademarks, which survives to this day is the coat of arms of the Medicis. This coat of arms consists of the now familiar three gold balls which pawn-brokers have universally adopted.

BIG SALARY OF LITTLE AVAIL

The Lord Mayor of London gets a salary of $50,000 a year, but this is largely swallowed up in the pageantry of office. The festivities on Lord Mayor's Day alone cost $20,000.

Neglected Cough Dangerous—How to Stop It Quickly

When the delicate tissues of your throat are raw and sore from coughing, and your strength is exhausted with the constant hacking, you may fall an easy prey to more serious trouble. So stop the cough the quickest you can, before it creeps too deep.

By a very simple treatment you can stop the spasm practically at once, and relieve the heaviest cough often in 24 hours. The treatment is based on a remarkable prescription known as Dr. King's New Discovery for Coughs. You simply take a teaspoonful and hold it in your throat for 15 or 20 seconds before swallowing, without following with water. It has a double action. It not only soothes and heals soreness and irritation, but it quickly loosens and removes the phlegm and congestion which are the direct cause of the coughing. With the cause treated in this way, the whole cough condition goes in a very short time.

The prescription contains no opiates or harmful drugs. It simply helps Nature. It is for coughs, chest colds, hoarseness, bronchitis and spasmodic croup. Very economical, as the dose is only one teaspoonful. For sale at all good druggists. Ask for

EAST END NEWS MRS. JAMES HARRIS Correspondent TEL. 91-R

On account of the illness of Mr. Hillard, the Married Ladies' Afternoon Club will not meet at the home of Mrs. L. P. Hillard on Friday afternoon as announced, but will meet with Mrs. R. E. Holmes.

Mr. Frank Gales, of East Market Street, who has been ill for about five weeks is improving slowly.

Monday evening at the end of a series of parties given in honor of several whose birthdays occur in January, Mrs. R. J. Watkins announced the engagement of her daughter, Miss Margaret Watkins to Mr. Robert H. Hardoen. Mr. Hardoen is a graduate chemist from Ann Arbor, Mich., class of 1917. At present he is a research chemist for the Duriron Company, Dayton, Ohio. He is a member of the American Electro-Chemical Society and also of The National Association for the Advancement of Science. Miss Margaret Watkins is a literary graduate of Wilberforce University and a graduate of the Illinois College of Chiropractic. For the past four years she has practiced chiropractic in Xenia. The marriage will take place sometime this summer.

ST. JOHN'S A. M. E. CHURCH

QUIT GETTING UP NIGHTS

A Healthy Bladder Acts During the Day

C. N. Shuman, Republic, Ohio, says: "Before taking Lithiated Buchu (Keller Formula) I had to get up six or seven times each night. Now I do not get up at all. You may use my name if it would benefit anyone with bladder trouble." Be careful not to take drugs that check the action of the bladder. You may have to continue its use. Lithiated Buchu (Keller Formula) increases the action during the day. It cleanses the bladder as Epsom Salts do the bowels driving out foreign matter, neutralizing excess acids, thereby relieving the irritation which causes "Getting Up Nights." These tablets cost 2c each at all drug stores or Keller Laboratory, Mechanicsburg, Ohio. Locally at Sayre and Hemphill. Adv.

RESULTS THAT LAST

Proven by Xenia People.

Thousands of kidney sufferers have tried remedy after remedy with only temporary benefit. That's mighty discouraging! But one kidney remedy has earned a reputation for lasting results and there's plenty of proof right here in Xenia.

Read the experience of one who used Doan's Pills years ago and now makes her endorsement even stronger.

Mrs. David Pohl, 751 W. Second St., Xenia, says: "I suffered with lame back quite frequently, but the most annoying symptom was the irregularity of my kidneys. I felt languid and it seemed I couldn't get any rest. Doan's Pills from Donges' Drug Store cured me entirely."

OVER FOUR YEARS LATER, Mrs. Pohl said: "I have had no further occasion to use Doan's since they cured me."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Pills—the same that Mrs. Pohl had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

VALUE OF POUND IS NOW INCREASING

Value of the British pound is getting back to normalcy, according to advices received by Postmaster C. S. Frazer Tuesday who passed on an order to the money order department to rate the pound sterling at $4.90 after Tuesday.

In pre-war days the pound was worth but $4.86 when the financial status of the mother country had fallen to such a low level that not much more than $3.00 was necessary to purchase a Bank of England note. Recent financial market quotations rated the pound sterling at slightly more than $4.77. Now, however, if it is desired to buy a pound for transmission by a postal money order from Xenia, $4.90 must be paid.

POLICE COURT

FINED FOR THEFT

Elmer Johnson, colored, Orchard Street, arrested on a warrant sworn out by Frank Cline on a charge of petit larceny, was convicted of the charge at his trial Monday afternoon in Police Court and fined $25 and costs and sentenced to spend thirty days in the County Jail by Police Judge E. Smith. Cline declared Johnson had stolen a tire from his automobile.

MAKES SETTLEMENT

Mrs. Jennie Hickman, colored, East Third Street, has agreed to pay $200 and costs on an old fine of $500 and costs imposed last May by Police Judge E. D. Smith on a charge of possessing liquor.

Mrs. Hickman's case was carried into Common Pleas Court by her attorney Frank L. Johnson, on the grounds that a police judge appointed by city officials could not legally impose a fine, but the appeal was never heard.

AUTO STOLEN

Lester Harner reported to police Tuesday that his Buick touring car, which he had parked on East Church Street near the Central High School building Monday night, had been stolen. The machine bore a 1925 license.

TO CENTER COLOR

If there are several pieces of furniture and accessories in a room which are of various colors, a touch of harmony is easily obtained by having a stencil design on the walls which brings in its make-up the different colors. The stencil is made more attractive by applying a coat of a velvet finish varnish after the paint has thoroughly dried.

PILES

The application of BRAZILIAN BALM covered with hot moist compress is a direct relief for inflamed piles. A peculiarly effective cathartic in presence of inflamed piles is to mix Brazilian Balm one part with glycerine two parts and take half a tablespoonful four times daily. adv.

Here's Yesterday's Puzzle Solution

MAKING STENCIL PATTERNS

When making a stencil design it is best to use the regular stencil paper which can be bought at any paint or art shop. However, there are two good substitutes if time can't be taken to secure stencil paper. You may use a heavy wrapping paper and treat it with either linseed oil or just the ordinary sewing machine oil, or you may take cardboard and rub it with wax. These substitutes are so treated to prevent the paint from smearing when stencil pattern is being put on.

FLAMES in a great tenement imprisoned scores of persons in the apartments above. The Fire-Chief ordered a hose played on the blaze. His men jumped to obey. Their wagon was empty. The hose was missing.

A missing word is a missing tool. The man who can't express his thoughts can't convey his ideas. If you don't know words, and how to use them, you are as bad off in business or society as a fireman at a fire without a hose. What chance would you stand against the fires of competition if you could neither write nor speak?

You must keep pace with the language to keep up with the world. Education today is progressive—not confined to yesterday's language and activities. War and new discoveries have brought into general and proper use so many new words that all dictionaries published before this one are wholly out of date. The offers to its readers this new dictionary.

Evening Gazette And

Twenty-two dictionaries in one. Defines words used with special meanings in such activities as war, golf, yachting, music, baseball, etc.

Full of information needed daily in home and office. Illustrated with full pages of color.

4. Grendel Again
(Drawing: Costume for Hrothgar)
For twelve long and dismal winters did Grendel terrify the feast hall of King Hrothgar and none could stand against the monster. Thus did the power of Hrothgar grow less and his sorrows grow greater, and his feast hall was desolate. For none dared stay there when evening fell because of Grendel's deeds. Only Hrothgar might abide in Heorot at his ease because a Godly charm was about the throne; a charm which Grendel could not break through and thus destroy Hrothgar.

And the king grew old beyond his years, which indeed were plentiful and prayed that some champion might come and rid him of this dreadful monster and vowed great gifts to such a man, if on all the earth one lived who could prevail against this fiendish Grendel.

It must be his prayers were heard, for news of Hrothgar's sore affliction traveled to the land of the Geats where Hygelac was a most just and mighty king. 'Twas in Geatland that Beowulf lived. (Tomorrow's story will tell about who Beowulf was.)

FIVE DAYS TO BEAT DELINQUENT LIST

A list, containing the names of the delinquent tax-payers, will be published in the newspapers after January 20, according to County Auditor R. O. Wead. The list will contain the names of those persons who failed to pay their June, 1924 and December, 1924 taxes.

Persons now on the delinquent list have until January 20 to pay their taxes. After publication, the list will be certified to the auditor of state and taxes will then be subject to a 10 per cent penalty, it is said.

Property which is kept on the delinquent tax list for four years, is then sold and the proceeds applied in payment of back taxes.

FISH OILS DEODORIZED

Discovery that fish oils can be deodorized by passing hydrogen, nitrogen or carbon dioxide gas through them has been announced by Dr. H. K. Benson, professor of chemical engineering in the University of Washington, at Seattle. This eliminates an objection to paints made with fish oils, of which there is a large potential production in the Pacific Northwest. Such paints are declared to have unusual durability.

MODISH MITZI—Hats Are On The Budget List Next

By Jay V. Jay

Each day Mitzi sets out to make part of her budget list come true. Yesterday she settled the matter of a street dress. Today she is going to look for hats. Dad will be surprised when he finds that she can not only make a budget but keep to it as well.

Just as Mitzi thought. There is a great variety of hats of just the kind she wants. For instance, this little satin melon shaped hat with its frill over the crown. It's close fitting and has a becomingly small brim.

Of course everyone is wearing felt. And here is one of the smart models with the very high crowns that end in a peak at the top. To make it seem even higher, a bow-like knot of felt trims the top most point.

And here is the hat Mitzi went home with. It is of felt. The four wings on top relieve the severe plainness. The crown starts to be square and then ends in a point. Well so far so good with Mitzi's budget. More tomorrow.

PROFESSOR ARTHUR SCHLESINGER JOINS FACULTY OF HARVARD

Professor Arthur M. Schlesinger, formerly of this city and son of Mrs. B. Schlesinger of South Detroit Street, has resigned his position as head of the Department of History at the University of Iowa to accept a full time position as professor of history at Harvard University.

Professor Schlesinger has been on the Harvard faculty for the last year, having been granted a leave of absence from his post at Iowa. The Iowa Alumnus, a weekly magazine, has this to say of his departure:

"Professor Schlesinger has become popular on the campus and great regret has been expressed by the faculty, student body and Iowa City friends on hearing that he and his family will not return to Iowa City."

"Professor Schlesinger came to Iowa in 1919 from Ohio State University. As a result of his publications he is recognized as one of the leading scholars in American history. He is the author of the 'American Merchant and the American Revolution' which won the Justin Winsor prize of the American History Association in 1918. Two other books of Mr. Schlesinger's are 'New Viewpoints in American History' (1922) and 'Great Charters of Americanism' (1920)."

Professor Schlesinger is a graduate of Central High School here and also graduated from the Ohio State University besides taking considerable post graduate work.

BRINGING UP FATHER

The Husband Tamer by VIOLET DARE

WHO'S WHO AND WHAT'S HAPPENED

PATRICIA CLEVE protests to her husband,

ANDREW CLEVE, a young lawyer, that he has made her a tamer of other women's husbands, forcing her to do so much entertaining of his clients that he sacrifices her to his business. She goes on a visit to her sister,

CAROL WILLUGHBY, who, with her husband,

KEITH WILLUGHBY, lives in a country club colony near Chicago. But Keith, like Andrew, seeks to use Patricia's charm as an asset, trying to persuade her to intercede in his behalf with

GREGORY HEWITT, a famous financier, whom she has met through Andrew. Patricia is disturbed by Keith's attentions to ISOBEL DRAKE, the country club widow. Finding that she can come between them by yielding to Keith's urging that she invite Hewitt to dinner, she does so, reluctantly, as Hewitt has avowed his love for her. She plans to return home, but receives word from Andrew that he is going abroad at once. To please Patricia, Hewitt promises to build the railroad Keith is interested in, and arranges a western trip for the Willoughbys, Patricia and himself.

TODAY'S INSTALMENT

XXXV—A BITTER CUP

GREGORY HEWITT put through his plans with haste that astonished Patricia, and left even Keith aghast. What impressed her even more than the way in which he juggled his business affairs, however, was the fact that he convinced Carol that she could leave the baby at home with his corps of nurses, and go jaunting off to the Pacific Coast without worrying about him.

Two weeks rushed by, weeks full of events but not of interest for Patricia, although she seemed full of zest to the others. Keith had but little time nowadays for Isobel Drake; he was busily arranging his affairs so that he could be free to go on the momentous western trip. There were luncheons at the club and at the various charming homes that made up the club colony, women's luncheons, at which the guests frankly envied Carol and Patricia. There were dinners and dances, where Patricia was the center of the interest; knowing of her friendship with Gregory Hewitt, the men flocked about her; although they would not have admitted it, they wanted to know what this young woman was like who could interest so influential a man as he was.

But to Patricia it was ashes and sawdust. Andy had called her of his arrival, but he hadn't written. Linda Boyce had, however—a long, newsy letter, written on shipboard, had come from her, enclosing a snapshot of Andy. It was an excellent likeness of him, standing against the rail, his cap in his hand, the collar of his big, loose overcoat turned up as protection against the wind. It was also an excellent likeness of Linda Boyce, who stood on one side of him with an arm through his, and of a very pretty blonde girl who stood on his other side, also with an arm through his. All three were laughing. Patricia wept bitterly over it and torn it in halves, and then had patched them together again.

"This is just what I need," she told herself. "I've got to stop moping and be sensible. Andy and I had our romance, and now it's over. He's got to have a wife who can stand the constant round of entertaining that he likes. I can't stand it. If he'd really been the man I thought he was, he'd have wanted a home and children too—I've got to remember that I married a real man, not my ideal one."

But she gazed with the kodak picture beneath her pillow. Sometimes she could forget the two women it showed, and when she looked at it during the night by the light of the lamp on the bedside table, could see only his beloved face.

It was only when she was with Gregory Hewitt that she could forget the ache at her heart. His personality was so dominating, so winning, that no woman could well think of anyone but him when he was with her.

He made no further reference to his hope of marrying her, realizing that to do so would mean her swift withdrawal from him. He was content to let that wait until he could come to her with definite plans. And Patricia, hoping that he had abandoned the idea, took what happiness she could find as the days whirled swiftly past, and wrote carefully worded letters to Andrew, telling him of Hewitt's promise to retain him as his attorney a little later, telling of Keith's plans for the railroad and the mines, and of the western trip.

Her pride kept her from writing him what she wanted to say—kept her from telling him how much she loved him, and begging him to let her join him.

But she was glad when at last the day of departure arrived, and she and Carol and Keith joined Gregory Hewitt at the railway station, and were escorted into his private car.

Patricia was delighted with her stateroom, and examined it eagerly while Hewitt stood in the doorway, smiling.

"Like it?" he asked, as she turned to him happily.

"Oh, it's adorable. I've never seen anything half so nice in yachts or private cars or anywhere like that."

"I'm so glad. You see, I had it redecorated especially for you," he told her gravely. "I'm superstitious, you know, and I wanted to have things all new for you, to make this a real beginning, without any of the past hanging over it."

She turned away sharply, fingering the roses that filled a bowl on the dressing table.

"I get what I want always, Patricia," he added, and the door closed softly behind him.

Dinner was served in the long room at the end of the car that was living room and dining room both; afterward they played bridge, and Patricia sang negro spirituals, and little French songs, accompanying herself on the piano. Now that they had started at last, had begun this new adventure, she had resolved to take whatever came. Andy didn't want her—she could cling to that now. She had torn up the kodak picture of him and thrown it away before she started. After all, she could stop at Reno on the way home, if she liked—and if Andrew was really willing to let her go. One must accept modern life as it came—"till death do us part" was being crowded out of the marriage ceremony nowadays!

Tomorrow—Hewitt Looks Ahead.

WEAK, RUN-DOWN NERVOUS, DIZZY

Mrs. Lee Suffered From All These Troubles, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Made Her Well

Terre Haute, Indiana.—"I was weak and run-down and in such a nervous condition that I could hardly do my work. I was tired all the time and dizzy, had no appetite and could not sleep. I tried different medicines for a year but they did not help me. Then my husband saw the ad. for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in the newspapers and had me take it. I regained my strength and never felt better in my life. It completely restored me to health. I had practically no suffering when my baby boy was born and he is very strong and healthy. I know that the Vegetable Compound is the best medicine a woman can take before and after childbirth for health and strength. I would be willing to answer letters from women asking about the Vegetable Compound."

Mrs. Wm. J. Lee, Route E, Box 648, Terre Haute, Indiana.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a dependable medicine for all these troubles.

Pretty Model falls in Love with SKINNY CHAP WHO PUT ON GOOD FIRM FLESH. LOOKS 100% BETTER NOW. "Real Man" since he took gland treatment. Full of pep—"regular fellow" now.

Is it possible for a thin, bony, hollow-cheeked fellow to put on good solid flesh, fill out like a real red-blooded man, and get new pep and strength IN LESS THAN A MONTH?

Not only does Miss Greta Evans THINK so—SHE KNOWS SO. Her sweetheart was a "skinny as a broomstick," he was so pale, nervous and unhealthy-looking he seemed like a walking ghost. Then, secretly at first, he started in taking Kath, a wonderful new gland treatment he heard about, and in three weeks time he added 18 lbs. of fine strong flesh. Pretty soon his face took on a fine healthy glow, he felt new vitality surging in his veins. Then he "popped the question" to the beautiful Miss Evans, and she quickly said "Yes." As Jack now writes, both were in a "seventh heaven."

Kath is the much talked-about genuine extract of glands which gives a new start to the flesh forming and strength building fluids that are now lying idle or worn out from overwork, worry, excess, nervousness. The following drug store is authorized by the Kath Research Institute to make this

GUARANTEE.

The harmless and inexpensive Kath gland treatment if taken as prescribed, according to directions, will give any man or woman good firm flesh, increased weight, and pep within one month, or full cost price will be refunded.
